The Psychology of Art Appreciation Bjarne Sode Funch, 1997 This book is more than an introduction to the psychology of art appreciation; it puts into perspective the research carried out within the area and offers a new understanding of the relationship between art and viewer. A number of studies within the psycho-physical, cognitive, psychoanalytic, and existential phenomenological schools of thought are presented in order to demonstrate how their views on the appreciation of visual art vary. Five different types of art appreciation ranging from a spontaneous preference for a work of art to a blissful experience of transcendence are identified and described.

Pathways to Art Appreciation Al Hurwitz, Stanley S. Madeja, Eldon Katter, 2003 This book is a source book for the art educator for the teaching of art appreciation at all levels.

A Critical Rationalist Aesthetics
Joseph Agassi, Ian Charles Jarvie, 2008 This book is a first attempt to cover the whole area of aesthetics from the point of view of critical rationalism. It takes up and expands upon the more narrowly focused work of E. H. Gombrich, Sheldon Richmond, and Raphael Sassower and Louis Ciccotello. The authors integrate the arts into the scientific world view and acknowledge that there is an aesthetic aspect to anything whatsoever. They pay close attention to the social situatedness of the arts. Their aesthetics treats art as emerging from craft in the form of luxurious and playful challenges to the audience. In developing it, they place emphasis on the number of questions and claims that can be settled by appeal to empirical facts on the historical character of aesthetic judgements and on the connection of aesthetic truth to true love and true friendship, i.e. fidelity and integrity, not to informative truth.
