Ancient Americas Richard F. Townsend, 1992 The Ancient Americas Richard F. Townsend, 1992 A lavishly illustrated catalog of a traveling exhibition marking the Columbus quincentennial explores the common threads in fourteen pre Columbian cultures from the Olmec Maya and Aztec of Mexico and Guatemala through the Chavin culture 900 200 B C of the Andes to the Moche Chimu and the Inca empire accompanied by essays from 26 scholars examining sacred geographies myths and ancient beliefs as they are transmitted through visual arts and architecture The Ancient Americas Anthony F. Aveni, 1992 The ancient Americas Colin McEwan, Norma Rosso, Art Institute, 1990 Visual Culture of the Ancient Americas Andrew Finegold, Ellen Hoobler, 2017-01-26 In the past fifty years the study of indigenous and pre Columbian art has evolved from a groundbreaking area of inquiry in the mid 1960s to an established field of research This period also spans the career of art historian Esther Pasztory Few scholars have made such a broad and lasting impact as Pasztory both in terms of our understanding of specific facets of ancient American art as well as in our appreciation of the evolving analytical tendencies related to the broader field of study as it developed and matured The essays collected in this volume reflect scholarly rigor and new perspectives on ancient American art and are contributed by many of Pasztory s former students and colleagues A testament to the sheer breadth of Pasztory s accomplishments Visual Culture of the Ancient Americas covers a wide range of topics from Aztec picture writing to nineteenth century European scientific illustration of Andean sites in Peru The essays written by both established and rising scholars from across the field focus on three areas the ancient Andes including its representation by European explorers and scholars of the nineteenth century Classic period Mesoamerica and its uses within the cultural heritage debate of the twentieth and twenty first centuries and Postclassic Mesoamerica particularly the deeper and heretofore often hidden meanings of its cultural production Figures maps and color plates demonstrate the vibrancy and continued allure of indigenous artworks from the ancient Americas Pre Columbian art can give more Pasztory declares and the scholars featured here make a compelling case for its incorporation into art theory as a whole The result is a collection of essays that celebrates Pasztory s central role in the development of the field of Ancient American visual studies even as it looks toward the future of the discipline Indian Art of the Americas at the Art Institute of Chicago Richard F. Townsend, 2016-06-28 A stunning survey of the indigenous art architecture and spiritual beliefs of the Americas from the Precolumbian era to the 20th century This landmark publication catalogues the Art Institute of Chicago s outstanding collection of Indian art of the Americas one of the foremost of its kind in the United States Showcasing a host of previously unpublished objects dating from the Precolumbian era to the 20th century the book marks the first time these holdings have been comprehensively documented Richard Townsend and Elizabeth Pope weave an overarching narrative that ranges from the Midwestern United States to the Yucat n Peninsula to the heart of South America While exploring artists myriad economic historical linguistic and social backgrounds the authors demonstrate that they shared both a deep underlying cosmological view and the desire to secure their communities prosperity by affirming connections to the sacred forces of the natural world The critical essays focus on topics that bridge traditions across North Central and South America including materials methods of manufacture the diversity of stylistic features and the iconography and functions of various objects Gorgeously illustrated in color with more than 500 vibrant images this handsome catalogue serves as the definitive survey of an unparalleled collection Maya Pilgrimage to Ritual Landscapes Joel W.

qualities of Andean culture The reader is provided with a fine sense of how the creators and original owners of the pieces in the Bliss collection used and valued these artworks on many levels The authors also place individual objets alongside others of their type in so far as possible An extraordinary feature of this volume is the technical descriptions of the metal objects provided by metals specialist Heather Lechtman Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collection website Pots, Potters, and Models Karen Gayle Harry, Stephanie Michelle Whittlesey, 1992 This CD ROM and book present the research at a large dispersed residential settlement located along the Santa Cruz River occupied during the Rincon phase of the Sedentary period between about A D 950 and 1100 One of the most intensively excavated settlements in the Tucson Basin excavations at the SRI locus provided an opportunity to return to a previously excavated site and contribute new evidence for earlier findings West Branch has been identified as a community of potters who fabricated a range of painted plain and red ware ceramics The research focused on this notion exploring how pots were made the ways in which potters carried out their craft and models for the production and distribution of ceramic containers Volume 1 Feature Descriptions Material Culture and Specialized Analyses is provided in CD ROM format and includes details of fieldwork such as feature descriptions and the descriptive artifactual and subsistence data reports Volume 2 Synthesis and Interpretations presented in book format offers the results of synthetic and interpretive analyses Of Remembering and Forgetting Stella Elise Nair, 2003 On the Lips of Others Patrick Thomas Hajovsky, 2015-06-01 Moteuczoma the last king who ruled the Aztec Empire was rarely seen or heard by his subjects yet his presence was felt throughout the capital city of Tenochtitlan where his deeds were recorded in hieroglyphic inscriptions on monuments and his command was expressed in highly refined ritual performances What did Moteuczoma's fame mean in the Aztec world How was it created and maintained In this innovative study Patrick Hajovsky investigates the king's inscribed and spoken name showing how it distinguished his aura from those of his constituencies especially other Aztec nobles warriors and merchants who also vied for their own grandeur and fame While Tenochtitlan reached its greatest size and complexity under Moteuczoma the Great Speaker innovated upon fame by tying his very name to the Aztec royal office As Moteuczoma's fame transcends Aztec visual and oral culture Hajovsky brings together a vast body of evidence including Nahuatl language and poetry indigenous pictorial manuscripts and written narratives and archaeological and sculptural artifacts The kaleidoscopic assortment of sources casts Moteuczoma as a divine king who while inheriting the fame of past rulers saw his own reputation become entwined with imperial politics ideological narratives and eternal gods Hajovsky also reflects on posthumous narratives about Moteuczoma which created a very different sense of his fame as a conquered subject These contrasting aspects of fame offer important new insights into the politics of personhood and portraiture across Aztec and colonial period sources
