Empire Girls Mandy Treagus,2014-05-12 The dominant form of the nineteenth century novel was the Bildungsroman a story of an individual's development that came to speak more widely of the aspirations of nineteenth century British society Some of the most famous examples David Copperfield Great Expectations Jane Eyre validated the world from which they sprang in which even orphans could successfully make their way Empire Girls the colonial heroine comes of age is a critical examination of three novels by writers from different regions of the British Empire Olive Schreiner's The Story of An African Farm South Africa Sara Jeannette Duncan's A Daughter of Today Canada and Henry Handel Richardson's The Getting of Wisdom Australia All three novels commence as conventional Bildungsromane yet the plots of all diverge from the usual narrative structure as a result of both their colonial origins and the clash between their aspirational heroines and the plots available to them In an analysis including gender empire nation and race Empire Girls provides new critical perspectives on the ways in which this dominant narrative form performs very differently when taken out of its metropolitan setting

Priestess Path Stacey Demarco,2023-06-14 In the ancient world priestesses were wise women who delivered messages from the gods They also served the people offering healing virtue leadership and insight In our modern times women's responsibilities can be overwhelming When you're juggling a high powered job caring for your young family and even your elderly parents when can you find time for yourself let alone service to the wider world This practical guide offers lessons both ancient and modern to help us to rise into our own inner power It invites us to look to the timeless mythos of the cultures of the world for direction to build resilience strength and confidence as well as our capacity for profound joy creativity and focused action Priestess Path will inspire you to be more ethically powerful make a positive difference to your community and to the planet and in turn inspire others

Backgazing: Reverse Time in Modernist Culture Paul Giles,2019-02-14 This volume traces ways in which time is represented in reverse forms throughout modernist culture from the beginning of the twentieth century until the decade after World War II Though modernism is often associated with revolutionary or futurist directions this book argues instead that a retrograde dimension is embedded within it By juxtaposing the literature of Europe and North America with that of Australia and New Zealand it suggests how this antipodean context serves to defamiliarize and reconceptualize normative modernist understandings of temporal progression Backgazing thus moves beyond the treatment of a specific geographical periphery as another margin on the expanding field of New Modernist Studies Instead it offers a systematic investigation of the transformative effect of retrograde dimensions on our understanding of canonical modernist texts The title backgazing is taken from Australian poet Robert G Fitzgerald's 1938 poem Essay on Memory and it epitomizes how the cultural history of modernism can be restructured according to a radically different discursive map Backgazing intellectually reconfigures US and European modernism within a planetary orbit in which the literature of Australia and the Southern Hemisphere far from being merely an annexed margin can be seen substantively to change the directional compass of modernism more generally By reading canonical modernists such as James Joyce and T S Eliot alongside marginalized writers such as Nancy Cunard and others and relatively neglected authors from Australia and New Zealand this book offers a revisionist cultural history of modernist time one framed by a recognition of how its measurement is modulated across geographical space The Getting of Wisdom

Henry Handel Richardson,2012-08-22 The Getting of Wisdom was first published in 1910 and has continued to sell well Germaine Greer's introduction of course makes this edition even more appealing to the reader Described by H G Wells as the best school story he knew The Getting of Wisdom is the classic Australian novel of school days a compelling and frank account of a young girl's coming of age Sexual tension tightens every page writes Germaine Greer The enduring truth is that The Getting of Wisdom is Richardson's only great book precisely because the subject is like the rest of us ordinary and therefore deeply important River of Ink Thomas Christensen,2014-10-20 With its title harkening back to the sack of Baghdad in 1258 when the Tigris ran black with the ink of books flung into the water by Mongol invaders River of Ink is a collection of essays that range widely across time and cultures to illuminate the role of literature and art throughout history

Christensen draws from a panoply of subjects from the writings of prehistoric Chinese cultures known only through archaeology to the heroic efforts of contemporary Afghans to keep the legacy of their ancient culture alive under the barrage of endless war Christensen's encyclopedic knowledge of world art and vast understanding of literature allows him to move easily from a discussion of the invention of moveable type in Korea to Johannes Kepler's search for the harmony of the spheres to the strange journey of an iron sculpture from Benin to the Louvre Other essays cover the Popol Vuh of the Maya as exemplum of translation the pioneering explorations of the early American naturalist John Bartram and the balletic works of Louis Ferdinand Cline It is Christensen's gift to see the world whole to offer a wealth of connections vital for us as citizens of a rapidly globalizing world Cloud Land Penny van Oosterzee,2023-01-31 A sweeping account of Australia's wet tropical rainforest country from deep time to the legendary time of Australia's first peoples from the killing times and maniacal destruction of the forests by European settlers to the present time of growing awareness of forests as the life force of the planet Shortlisted for The Courier Mail People's Choice Queensland Book of the Year Award 2023 Wreathed in morning mist the rainforest is a place where evolution and legend rule Where the thunderbird once roamed now kangaroos climb trees which reach into the clouds to strip them of water On their property on the Atherton Tablelands Penny van Oosterzee and her husband are regenerating rainforest from paddocks reconnecting fragments into a living corridor that will run to the Daintree and beyond Penny weaves this personal experience into a sweeping account of Australia's rainforests from their swampy birth millions of years ago to the present Creation stories and science bleed together for rainforest people who remember through legend the volcanic creation of the tablelands They managed Country for thousands of years stitched into the patterns of the forest Then came the European settlers and the killing times The giant cedars were pillaged in a frenzy and the richest rainforests in the world were cleared to make way for small unsustainable cattle farms for the settlers

After bitterly fought battles against logging much of Australia's remaining wet tropical rainforest is now World Heritage listed and is once again being managed by Traditional Owners. Will the unique capacity of these rainforests to counteract climate change be their salvation or will they continue to be vulnerable to exploitation for short term gain? A delight to read and a wonderfully original synthesis of science history and the Dreaming powerfully conveying the agency of Earth the forest our fellow creatures and the personality of Thiaki Professor Tom Griffiths Australian National University I challenge anyone who starts this book to put it down without first devouring it from cover to cover Professor Mike Archer AM University of New South Wales A delight to read Mike Berwick former mayor of Douglas Shire A candidate for Australia's top 50 most important books A fascinating story woven together with great care Dr Peter Mitchell OAM former Professor of Geography at Macquarie University Driven by a love of the wet tropical forests Penny van Oosterzee tells their story from deep time to the present Libby Connors author of Warrior

Locating Australian Literary Memory Brigid Magner, 2019-11-22 Locating Australian Literary Memory explores the cultural meanings suffusing local literary commemorations. It is orientated around eleven authors Adam Lindsay Gordon Joseph Furphy Henry Handel Richardson Henry Lawson A B Banjo Paterson Nan Chauncy Katharine Susannah Prichard Eleanor Dark P L Travers Kylie Tennant and David Unaipon who have all been celebrated through a range of forms including statues huts trees writers houses and assorted objects. Brigid Magner illuminates the social memory residing in these monuments and artefacts which were largely created as bulwarks against forgetting. Acknowledging the value of literary memorials and the voluntary labour that enables them she traverses the many contradictions ironies and eccentricities of authorial commemoration in Australia arguing for an expanded repertoire of practices to recognise those who have been hitherto excluded
