Fearing the Dark Edmund G. Bansak, 2003-10-09 Cat People 1942 and I Walked with a Zombie 1943 established Val Lewton's hauntingly graceful style where suggestion was often used in place of explicit violence. His stylish B thrillers were imitated by a generation of filmmakers such as Richard Wallace, William Castle and even Walt Disney in his animated Adventures of Ichabod and Mr. Toad 1949. Through interviews with many of Lewton's associates, including his wife and son, and extensive research, his life and output are thoroughly examined.

The Cinema of Barbara Stanwyck Catherine Russell, 2023-05-02 From The Lady Eve to The Big Valley, Barbara Stanwyck played parts that showcased her multidimensional talents but also illustrated the limits imposed on women in film and television. Catherine Russell's A to Z consideration of the iconic actress analyzes twenty-six facets of Stanwyck and the America of her times. Russell examines Stanwyck's work onscreen against the backdrop of costuming and other aspects of filmmaking. But she also views the actress's off-screen performance within the Hollywood networks that made her an industry favorite and longtime cornerstone of the entertainment community. Russell's montage approach coalesces into an engrossing portrait of a singular artist whose intelligence and savvy placed her center stage in the production of her films and in the debates around women, femininity and motherhood that roiled mid-century America.
