Arabs in the Mirror Nissim Rejwan,2009-02-17 What is an Arab Though many in the West would answer that question with simplistic stereotypes the reality is far more complex and interesting Arabs themselves have been debating Arab identity since pre Islamic times coming to a variety of conclusions about the nature and extent of their Arabness Likewise Westerners and others have attempted to analyze Arab identity reaching mostly negative conclusions about Arab culture and capacity for self government To bring new perspectives to the question of Arab identity Iraqi born scholar Nissim Rejwan has assembled this fascinating collection of writings by Arab and Western intellectuals who try to define what it means to be Arab He begins with pre Islamic times and continues to the last decades of the twentieth century quoting thinkers ranging from Ibn Khaldun to modern writers such as al Ansari Haykal Ahmad Amin al Azm and Said Through their works Rejwan shows how Arabs have grappled with such significant issues as the influence of Islam the rise of nationalism the quest for democracy women s status the younger generation Egypt s place in the Arab world Israel s role in Middle Eastern conflict and the West s cultural invasion By letting Arabs speak for themselves Arabs in the Mirror refutes a prominent Western stereotype that Arabs are incapable of self reflection or self government On the contrary it reveals a rich tradition of self criticism and self knowledge in the Arab world A History of Western Society John P.
