It seeks to defend Turkey against these claims by addressing nine allegations: 1. That Eastern Anatolia is the original homeland of the Armenians; 2. That beginning with the Seljuks and Ottomans, Turks have seized from Armenians their territories and occupied them by force; 3. That Turks have misruled and suppressed the Armenians throughout history; 4. That Turks have gun to massacre the Armenians as of 1890; 5. That Turks have submitted the Armenians to a genocide in 1915 in a planned and systematic way; 6. That Talat Pasha issued telegrams ordering genocide; 7. That the number of Armenians who lost their lives through genocide is one and one half million; 8. That the Treaty of Sèvres is still in force; 9. That today Turks are still keeping Armenians under oppression. Studies in Church History Reuben Parsons, 1895
