Dickson,2015-02-20 H R P Dickson had the good fortune to spend many years among the Badawin living and travelling with them as one of them in their own tents In this book first published in 1949 the author uses his great experience and knowledge to reveal all aspects of the lives of the nomadic desert Arabs from social systems to marriage and children from faith to food sandstorms warfare and hunting The Arab of the Desert is truly a wealth of information informed by personal insight and anecdotes   The Arab of the Desert Harold Richard Patrick Dickson,1983   The Arab of the Desert Harold Richad Patrick Dickson,1949   The Arab of the Desert. A Glimpse Into Badawin Life in Kuwait and Sau'di Arabia Harold Richard Patrick Dickson,1959   The Arab of the Desert. A Glimpse Into Badawin Life in Kuwait and Sau'di Arabia. [With Plates, Including Portraits and Maps.]. Harold Richard Patrick Dickson,1949   The Arabian Desert in English Travel Writing Since 1950 Jenny Walker,2022-12-30 Broadly this book is about the Arabian desert as the locus of exploration by a long tradition of British travellers that includes T E Lawrence and Wilfred Thesiger more specifically it is about those who since 1950 have followed in their literary footsteps In analysing modern works covering a land greater than the sum of its geographical parts the discussion identifies outmoded tropes that continue to impinge upon the perception of the Middle East today while recognising that the laboured binaries of East and West desert and sown noble and savage have outrun their course Where however only a barren legacy of latent Orientalism may have been expected the author finds instead a rich seam of writing that exhibits diversity of purpose and insight contributing to contemporary discussions on travel and tourism intercultural representation and environmental awareness By addressing a lack of scholarly attention towards recent additions to the genre this study illustrates for the benefit of students of travel literature or indeed anyone interested in Arabia how desert writing under the emerging configurations of globalisation postcolonialism and ecocriticism acts as a microcosm of the kinds of ethical and emotional dilemmas confronting today s travel writers in the world s most extreme regions   The Geology of the Arab World---An Overview Abderrahmane Bendaoud,Zakaria Hamimi,Mohamed Hamoudi,Safouane Djemai,Basem Zoheir,2018-09-21 This book is the result of the work of the first international congress of the ArabGU Arabian Geosciences Union which took place in Algiers Algeria in February 2016 It presents research articles and review papers on geology of the North Africa and Arabian Middle East It provides information to the public on various fields of earth sciences and encourages further research in this field in order to attract an international audience   *The advanced class-book of modern geography, by W. Cole,Soraya Altorki,1998-09-01 The arid regions impose strict limits upon human existence and activity And yet by respecting those limits the flourishing and stable culture of these regions has for centuries been sustained In the late twentieth century however forces such as modernization globalization and the politics and economics of nations became so great that major changes in the old ways had to take place for the sake of survival Egypt s northwest coast where meager coastal rains have supported a sparse but thriving population of Bedouin saw the arrival of settlers from the Nile Valley accustomed to a very different way of life and production and hordes of tourists whose empty silent structures effectively turned the most productive strip of the coastal range into an artificial desert This study documents the great accommodations that took place to ensure the arid rangelands of the northwest coast continue to be viable for the demands of human existence imposed on them A main thesis of this study the authors write is that change in the northwest coast of Egypt has strong parallels in other arid regions of the wider Arab world and specific comparisons are made to change underway elsewhere especially regarding the transformation of Arab nomadic pastoralist production to a new form of ranching and the related changes of sedentarization and the monetization of most aspects of livelihood
