A Journal of Natural Philosophy, Chemistry and the Arts William Nicholson, 1808 The Sacred Home in Renaissance Italy Abigail Brundin, Deborah Howard, Mary Laven, 2018-07-12 The Sacred Home in Renaissance Italy explores the rich devotional life of the Italian household between 1450 and 1600. Rejecting the enduring stereotype of the Renaissance as a secular age this interdisciplinary study reveals the home to have been an important site of spiritual revitalization. Books buildings objects spaces images and archival sources are scrutinized to cast new light on the many ways in which religion infused daily life within the household. Acts of devotion from routine prayers to extraordinary religious experiences such as miracles and visions frequently took place at home amid the joys and trials of domestic life from childbirth and marriage to sickness and death. Breaking free from the usual focus on Venice Florence and Rome The Sacred Home investigates practices of piety across the Italian peninsula with particular attention paid to the city of Naples the Marche and the Venetian mainland. It also looks beyond the elite to consider artisanal and lower status households and reveals gender and age as factors that powerfully conditioned religious experience. Recovering a host of lost voices and compelling narratives at the intersection between the divine and the everyday The Sacred Home offers unprecedented glimpses through the keyhole into the spiritual lives of Renaissance Italians International Yearbook for Research in Arts Education 5/2017 Teunis IJdend, Ben Bolden, Ernst Wagner, 2018 The Seoul Agenda Goals for the Development of Arts Education was unanimously endorsed by all UNESCO Member States in 2011.
