Small Favors:

Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he. The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor's Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820-1880. It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like. The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters. Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies. This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman. What makes the work important is Whiting's authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase. There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what is the real thing and what is spurious.

Friendship Daniel J. Hruschka, 2010-09-24 Friends they are generous and cooperative with each other in ways that appear to defy standard evolutionary expectations frequently sacrificing for one another without concern for past behaviors or future consequences. In this fascinating multidisciplinary study Daniel J Hruschka synthesizes an array of cross cultural experimental and ethnographic data to understand the broad meaning of friendship how it develops how it interfaces with kinship and romantic relationships and how it differs from place to place. Hruschka argues that friendship is a special form of reciprocal altruism based not on tit for tat accounting or forward looking rationality but rather on mutual goodwill that is built up along the way in human relationships.
