Small Kid Time Hawaii Eric Edward Chock, 1981 Poetry Native American Studies Eric Chock has taught with the Hawai i Poets in the Schools program since the early 70s and is currently the coordinator of the project This book edited by Chock is a collection of poems from his students Most of the poems in this book were written by 8 to 12 year old public school children with a sprinkling of poems by intermediate and high school students I would like to express my thanks to them for keeping poetry alive and well in Hawaii Chock s own book of poetry LAST DAYS HERE is also available from SPD Poetry and Pedagogy J. Retallack, J. Spahr, 2016-04-30 This anthology is a new reading of the contemporary poetries The collection gathers together the work of a number of scholars poets and teachers on the challenges and productive possibilities that arise when teaching contemporary writing today Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet s major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet s critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Cooling the Tropics Hi'ilei Julia Kawehipuaakahaopulani Hobart, 2022-11-21 Beginning in the mid 1800s Americans hauled frozen pond water then glacial ice and then ice machines to Hawai i all in an effort to reshape the islands in the service of Western pleasure and profit Marketed as essential for white occupants of the nineteenth century Pacific ice quickly permeated the foodscape through advancements in freezing and refrigeration technologies In Cooling the Tropics Hi'ilei Julia Kawehipuaakahaopulani Hobart charts the social history of ice in Hawai i to show how the interlinked concepts of freshness and refreshment mark colonial relationships to the tropics From chilled drinks and sweets to machinery she shows how ice and refrigeration underpinned settler colonial ideas about race environment and the senses By outlining how ice shaped Hawai i s food system in accordance with racial and environmental imaginaries Hobart demonstrates that thermal technologies can and must be attended to in struggles for food sovereignty
