About 40 percent of the content is new to this edition. Containing sources selected and annotated by a team of public and academic librarians the works included have been chosen for value and expertise in specific subject areas. Equally useful for both library patrons and staff this resource covers more than a dozen key subject areas including General Reference, Philosophy, Religion and Ethics, Psychology and Psychiatry, Social Sciences and Sociology, Business and Careers, Political Science and Law, Education, Words and Languages, Science and Technology, History and Performing Arts. Includes thorough annotations for each source with information on author, editor, publisher, cost, format, Dewey and LC classification numbers and more. Library patrons will find this an invaluable resource for current everyday topics. Archival work in modernist studies has revolutionised the discipline in the past two decades fuelled by innovative and ambitious scholarly editing projects and a growing interest in fresh types of archival sources and evidence that can re-contextualise modernist writing. Several theoretical trends have prompted this development including the focus on compositional process within genetic manuscript studies, the emphasis on book history, little magazines and wider publishing contexts and the emphasis on new material evidence and global and non-canonical authors and networks within the New Modernist Studies. This book provides a guide to the variety of new archival research that will point to fresh avenues and connect the methodologies and resources being developed across modernist studies. Offering a variety of single author case studies on recent archival developments and editing projects including Samuel Beckett, Hart Crane, H.D., James Joyce, Dorothy Richardson, May Sinclair and Virginia Woolf it also offers a range of thematic essays that examine an array of underused sources as well as the challenges facing archival researchers of modernism      History of the Government Printing Office, (at Washington, D.C.)
