

Smoke

Every time I need a re-set Like when I move in Want to get rid of the past
Wash away density and negativity
I burn sage
Smoke palo santo
Smudge incense
Dropping the ash
Allowing the smoke to fill
And then to clear away

Smoke Dorianne Laux, 2013-12-20 Dorianne Laux's long awaited third book of poetry follows her collection What We Carry a finalist for the 1994 National Book Critics Circle Award for Poetry In Smoke Laux revisits familiar themes of family working class lives and the pleasures of the body in poetry that is vital and artfully crafted poetry that gets hard in the face of aloofness in the words of one reviewer In Smoke as in her previous work Laux weaves the warp and woof of ordinary lives into extraordinary and complex tapestries In The Shipfitter's Wife a woman recalls her husband's homecoming at the end of his work day Then I'd open his clothes and take the whole day inside me the ship's gray sides the miles of copper pipe the voice of the foreman clanging off the hull's silver ribs Spark of lead kissing metal The clamp the winch the white fire of the torch the whistle and the long drive home And in the title poem Laux muses on her own guilty pleasures Who would want to give it up the coal a cat's eye in the dark room no one there but you and your smoke the window cracked to street sounds the distant cries of living things Alone you are almost safe With her keen ear and attentive eye Dorianne Laux offers us a universe with which we are familiar but gives it to us fresh Dorianne Laux is the author of two previous collections of poetry from BOA Editions Ltd and is co author with Kim Addonizio of The Poet's Companion A Guide to the Joys of Writing Poetry W W Norton 1997 chosen as an alternate selection by several bookclubs Laux was the judge for the 2012 A Poulin Jr Poetry Contest and is a tenured professor in the creative writing program at the University of Oregon Laux lives in Eugene Oregon

Fog and Smoke Katie Peterson, 2024-01-02 Peterson unfurls the quotidian fabric of our lives patterned with the difficulties of language and this moment Confusion frames the human predicament In Katie Peterson's Fog and Smoke confusion is literally our climate Writing to and from the California landscape Peterson sees fog and smoke as literal one a habitual natural weather event the other an increasingly common aftereffect of the West's drought caused fires But they are also metaphysical Fog and smoke reflect the true conditions and frustrations of our ability to perceive and to connect Peterson writes I've been speaking about it at a distance Now I want to talk about its thickness A person could get killed in here The collection moves through three sections First the poet follows her local fog's cyclical journey of descent and dispersion Second in a sort of pastoral interlude she travels widely almost erratically to the California desert the greater world and ancient history Finally she descends into the enclosed space of the household and the increased confinement and intimacy of raising a child during the pandemic Peterson unfolds the small moments that make up our lives and reveals the truths contained within them and her poems capture the lyricism of our daily rhythms the interruptions dialogues and epiphanies

This Smoke that Carried Us René Char, 2004 A bilingual collection of work by one of the greatest French poets of the twentieth century Smoke Charles Hine, Joan Mitchell, 1989 White Smoke Robert Herz, 1977 The Complete Poetry César Vallejo, 2007-01-08 This first translation of the complete poetry of Peruvian César Vallejo 1892-1938 makes available to English speakers one of the greatest achievements of twentieth century world poetry Handsomely presented in facing page Spanish and English this volume translated by National Book Award winner Clayton Eshleman includes the groundbreaking collections The Black Heralds 1918 Trilce 1922 Human Poems 1939 and Spain Take This Cup from Me 1939 Vallejo's poetry takes the Spanish language to an unprecedented level of emotional rawness and stretches its grammatical possibilities Striking against theology with the very rhetoric of the Christian faith Vallejo's is a tragic vision perhaps the only one in the canon of Spanish language literature in which salvation and sin are one and the same This edition includes notes on the translation and a fascinating translation memoir that traces Eshleman's long relationship with Vallejo's poetry An introduction and chronology provide further insights into Vallejo's life and work Dark Smoke Pancho

Becoming T. S. Eliot Jayme Stayer, 2021-10-05 This study offers a rhetorical analysis of how the young T S Eliot created a new voice and targeted a modern audience in the poems of his youthful notebook published in 1996 as Inventions of the March Hare By following Eliot's artistic development and intellectual maturation the author explores by chronological steps how a young man who writes uninspired doggerel transformed himself in twenty months into the author of The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock Smoke Winfield Scott, R. Wade Vliet, W. H. Gerry, 1931 Wings of Smoke Jim Pascual

Agustin, 2017-02-01 Wings of Smoke is the stunning work of a poet who asks the sorts of questions only poets ask softly prodding us towards awareness surprising us with gentleness and quiet humour weaving wonderful things into his carefully stitched fabric of verse It is a beautifully crafted collection of accessible poems in a mix of styles all striking in the poet's intimacy with his subjects There is a depth of incisive thought observation of nature human movement that feels unforced He expresses a concern for the fragility of our social order a concern for violations of human dignity brought about by violent conflict Silence and Articulacy in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian Maureen E. Ruprecht Fadem, 2019-12-03 Silence and Articulacy in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian is an innovative contribution to the scholarship on Belfast poet Medbh McGuckian This book considers the entire oeuvre of this globally respected Irish woman writer a member of the contemporary avant garde with now fifteen US published volumes and numerous individual publications The author positions McGuckian's oeuvre as political and historical poetry and offers a provocative new assessment of its crafted silences This work argues that it is the muted character of McGuckian's poems a consequence of a defamiliarized language the overwhelming sway of the image and a profusion of intertextual quoting that constitutes their agency and force The silences are read as a response to the precarious positionality of poet and speaker at the site of disaster and the limits of articulacy In line with Rukeyser's notion of the life of poetry the life of McGuckian's silences is located Fadem argues in the poems production as revealed self reflexively and in their prolonged consumption This oeuvre operates as a formidable counter discourse by converting poetry's reception into a much protracted task that redistributes the temporal economy of poem and reader and disrupts the given structures of time place and the order of things A Concordance to the Poems of

John Keats Michael G. Becker, Robert J. Dilligan, Todd K. Bender, 2016-05-05 First published in 1981 A Concordance to the Poems of John Keats intended to provide the user with a volume suitable to the varying and increasingly specialised interests of scholarship This title offers a high degree of inclusiveness that attends to the poems and plays the emended and authoritative headings and virtually all of the variant readings considered substantive in the riches of the Keats manuscript materials This title will be of interest to students of literature

Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor s Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting s authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what s the real thing and what is spurious
