Stephen The Chinese Pastor:

Stephen the Chinese Pastor Mary Wang,1973 Stephen the Chinese Pastor. The Life of Stephen Wang ... By Mary Wang, with Gwen and Edward England Mary Wang,1973 Ecumenism and Independency in World Christianity ,2020-09-07 Ecumenism and independency suggest two distinct impulses in the history of Christianity the desire for unity co operation connectivity and shared belief and practice and the impulse for distinction plurality and contextual translation Yet ecumenism and independency are better understood as existing in critical tension with one another They provide a way of examining changes in World Christianity Taking their lead from the internationally acclaimed research of Brian Stanley in whose honour this book is published contributors examine the entangled nature of ecumenism and independency in the modern global history of Christianity They show how the scrutiny afforded by the attention to local contextual approaches to Christianity outside the western world may inform and enrich the attention to transnational connectivity Journeys of Asian Diaspora Sam George,2021-10-19 Asians make up the largest and most dispersed people of the world and Christians make up a sizable proportion of this demographic Asian Christians are more likely to emigrate and many have continued to embrace Christian faith at their diasporic places of settlement They are quick to establish distinctively Asian churches all over the world and infuse diversity revival and missionary consciousness into their adopted communities They preserve the ties and cultures of their ancestral homelands while assimilating and adapting into the new setting They have become a recognizable force in the transformation and advancement of Christianity itself at the beginning of the twenty first century The dozen essays in this volume are written by leading scholars of Asian backgrounds situated in various diasporic locations The authors trace the contours of their dispersion and highlight diverse missiological themes including the scattering diaspora and the gathering ekklesia of Asian Christians around the world This volume traces the origins and destinations of major Asian migration and diaspora communities from a variety of perspectives and geographical locations It is pan Asian in scope and multidisciplinary in nature It also provides the latest data and infographics on Asian diasporas worldwide Stephen the Chinese Pastor Mary Wang,Gwen England,Edward England,1973

Entangled Pieties En-Chieh Chao,2017-08-03 This book explores the social life of Muslim women and Christian minorities amid Islamic and Christian movements in urban Java Indonesia Drawing on anthropological perspectives and 14 months of participant observation between 2009 and 2013 in the multi religious Javanese city of Salatiga this ethnography examines the interrelations between Islamic piety Christian identity and gendered sociability in a time of multiple religious revivals The novel encounters between multiple forms of piety and customary sociality among moderate Muslims puritan Salafists born again Pentecostals Protestants and Catholics require citizens to renegotiate various social interactions En Chieh Chao argues that piety has become a complex phenomenon entangled with gendered sociality and religious others rather than a preordained outcome stemming from a self contained religious tradition Promoting All-Round Education for Girls Patricia P. K. Chiu, 2020-06-02 Promoting All Round Education for Girls presents the history of Heep Yunn School one of the oldest girls schools in Hong Kong Amalgamated from two British mission schools founded in the 1880s for destitute girls and daughters of Christian parents and renamed Heep Yunn School in 1936 the institution has witnessed and responded to the dramatic changes of Hong Kong over the years By the time of the outbreak of the Second World War Heep Yunn had expanded to offer a full Chinese middle school course for girls based upon Christian principles of all round education The school expanded rapidly after the war and became a bilingual institution to meet the demand for English language education Eventually English would become the primary medium of instruction soon after the introduction of nine year universal education in 1978 Heep Yunn strives to provide a full fledged all round education in the midst of political and education reforms The school opted to switch its status from a government aided school to a direct subsidy scheme school in the early 2010s so as to retain a larger degree of autonomy This history of Heep Yunn School documents the concerted efforts of the school council staff students alumnae and parents to achieve the evolving visions of Christian education for girls as Hong Kong grew from a colonial trading port to a global financial centre in the twenty first century Promoting All Round Education for Girls convincingly charts the shifting purposes and practices of girls education in Hong Kong The text moves seamlessly between the history of the school and the wider context of Hong Kong's history Patricia P K Chiu illustrates how the school's educational policy evolved according to the wider strategies and shifts that relate models of femininity and nation building Joyce Goodman University of Winchester This solidly referenced work provides a balanced and detailed outlook on the unique evolving features of education in Hong Kong It shows the effects on Heep Yunn School of major historical changes in education policy and how the school has contributed to the education of girls in Hong Kong in periods of dramatic challenge like the Sino Japanese War and the disturbances of the late 1960s Ruth Hayhoe University of Toronto
