Pacifism, Just War, and Tyrannicide David M. Gides,2012-03-02 Dietrich Bonhoeffer s perplexing and controversial shift from admitted pacifism to tyrannicide has been the source of scholarly and popular inspiration and criticism How could an admitted Christian pacifist be involved in a plot to assassinate a political figure Is there a way to understand and explain this phenomenon comprehensive enough to encompass all relevant data One that takes into account the nuances of Bonhoeffer s theology and all of the elements of his complex historical and personal contexts This study attempts to offer an explanation by linking Bonhoeffer s political thinking and action with his understanding of the church world relationship and by evaluating the changes in that thought action dyad as his life progressed What emerges is a portrait of a bold and visionary thinker and political agent whose church world theology while discontinuous is consistent enough to be authentic and yet flexible enough to meet the extraordinary challenges presented by Nazism and its intrusion into the churches Gides suggests that it is actually Bonhoeffer s malleable church world thinking that ultimately distinguishes him from his theological and ecclesial contemporaries and even from the mass of German church persons and citizenry it allowed him to confront evil by reaching beyond the constraints of traditional Lutheran thinking Waiting for Gospel Douglas John Hall,2012-04-16 Christianity as faith centered in Jesus as the Christ came to be called got a foothold in the world and for a vital and vocal minority changed the world because it proclaimed a message that awakened men and women to possibilities for human life that they had either lost or never entertained That message the first Christian evangelists and Jesus himself according to the record called euangellion good news gospel For its first two or three hundred years Christianity was largely dependent for its existence upon the new zest for life that was awakened in persons who heard and were as they felt transformed by that gospel and at various and sundry points in subsequent history the Christian movement has found itself revitalized by the spirit of that same good news in ways that spoke to the specifics of their times and places The lesson of history is clear the challenge to all serious Christians and Christian bodies today is not whether we can devise yet more novel and promotionally impressive means for the transmission of the Christian religion let alone this or that denomination it is whether we are able to hear and to proclaim gospel We do not need statisticians and sociologists to inform us that religion and specifically our religion as the dominant expression of the spiritual impulse of homo sapiens in our geographic context is in decline We do not need the sages of the new atheism to announce in learned tomes and on buses that God probably does not exist The sea of faith has been ebbing for a very long time from the Introduction Bonhoeffer Eberhard Bethge,1979
