Still Lives:

Giving and Taking Voice in Learning Disabled Theatre Tony McCaffrey, 2023-04-26 Giving and Taking Voice in Learning Disabled Theatre offers unique insight into the question of voice in learning disabled theatre and what is gained and lost in making performance. It is grounded in the author's 18 years of making theatre with Different Light Theatre company in Christchurch New Zealand and includes contributions from the artists themselves. This book draws on an extensive archive of performer interviews, recordings of rehearsal processes and informal logs of travelling together and sharing experience. These accounts engage with the practical aesthetics of theatre making as well as their much wider ethical and political implications relevant to any collaborative process seeking to represent the under or unrepresented. Giving and Taking Voice in Learning Disabled Theatre asks how care and support can be tempered with artistic challenge and rigour and presents a case for how listening learning disabled artists to speech encourages attunement to indigenous knowledge and the cries of the planet in the current socio ecological crisis. This is a vital and valuable book for anyone interested in learning disabled theatre either as a performer, director, dramaturg, critic or spectator. Transcendence and Film David P. Nichols, 2019-05-23 In this edited collection of essays, ten experts in film philosophy explore the importance of transcendence for understanding cinema as an art form. They analyze the role of transcendence for some of the most innovative film directors: David Cronenberg, Karl Theodor Dreyer, Federico Fellini, Werner Herzog, Stanley Kubrick, David Lynch, Terrence Malick, Yasujiro Ozu, and Martin Scorsese. Meanwhile, they apply concepts of transcendence from continental philosophers like Alain Badiou, Gilles Deleuze, Martin Heidegger, Michel Henry, Edmund Husserl, Karl Jaspers, Søren Kierkegaard, Maurice Merleau-Ponty, Friedrich Nietzsche, and Jean-Paul Sartre. Each of the ten chapters results in a different perspective about what transcendence means and how it is essential to film as an art medium. Several common threads emerge among the chapters. The contributors find that the limitations of human existence are frequently made evident in moments of transcendence so as to bring characters to the margins of their assumed world. At other times, transcendence goes immanent so as to emerge in experiences of the surprising nearness of being as though for a radical intensification of life. Film can also exhibit ciphers of transcendence whereby symbolic events open us to greater realizations about our place in the world. Lastly, the contributors observe that transcendence occurs in film not simply from isolated moments forced into a storyline but in a manner rooted within an ontological rhythm peculiar to the film itself. Delphi Complete Works of Vincent van Gogh (Illustrated) Vincent van Gogh, 2014-07-09 One of the most celebrated artists of Western art, the Post-Impressionist Vincent van Gogh created masterpieces that are now famous for their striking colour, emphatic brushwork, and contoured forms.
