Stilt Walking At Midnight:

Stilt Walking at Midnight Jonell Esmé Jel'enedra, 2004-01-01 Carefully crafted and moving Stilt Walking at Midnight expresses a full range of emotion from deep sorrow and abandonment to lightness and innocence There is something gentle mysterious and brave about Ms Jel enedra s poems that is certain to attract a wide range of readers Robert Sward author of Three Dogs and a Parrot     The Screenplay of Midnight's Children ,1999 In 1993 Salman Rushdie s novel MIDNIGHT S CHILDREN was declared the Booker of Bookers the best book to win the Booker Prize in its first 25 years The BBC began the process of adapting it for television After three years had passed two producers and two directors had come and gone and the first scriptwriter s attempts had been set aside Salman Rushdie agreed to adapt his own work The result has been hailed as one of the most brilliant adaptations in television history Within months of the screenplay s completion the project was ready to start filming on location in Sri Lanka Then just weeks before principal photography was to begin the Sri Lankan authorities abruptly changed their minds and withdrew permission to film without giving any reasons In his enthralling introduction Rushdie describes the evolution of the screenplay and the project s political defeat As for the screenplay itself it cries out to be filmed Perhaps one day it will be     The Odd Fellow's Companion ,1876     Carnival Milla Cozart Riggio, 2004-10-14 This beautifully illustrated volume features work by leading writers and experts on carnival from around the world and includes two stunning photo essays by acclaimed photographers Pablo Delano and Jeffrey Chock Editor Milla Cozart Riggio presents a body of work that takes the reader on a fascinating journey exploring the various aspects of carnival its traditions its history its music its politics and prefaces each section with an illuminating essay Traditional carnival theory based mainly on the work of Mikhail Bakhtin and Victor Turner has long defined carnival as inversive or subversive The essays in this groundbreaking anthology collectively reverse that trend offering a re definition of carnival that focuses not on the hierarchy it temporarily displaces or negates but a one that is rooted in the actual festival event Carnival details its new theory in terms of a carnival that is at once representative and distinctive The Carnival of Trinidad the most copied yet least studied major carnival in the world     Object Performance in the Black Atlantic Paulette Richards, 2023-07-28 Given that slaveholders prohibited the creation of African style performing objects is there a traceable connection between traditional African puppets masks and performing objects and contemporary African American puppetry This study approaches the question by looking at the whole performance complex surrounding African performing objects and examines the material culture of object performance Object Performance in the Black Atlantic argues that since human beings can attribute private personal meanings to objects obtained for personal use such as dolls vessels and quilts the lines of material culture continuity between African and African American object performance run through objects that performed in ritual rather than theatrical capacity Split into three parts this book starts by outlining the spaces where the African American object performance complex persisted through the period of slavery Part Two traces how African Americans began to reclaim object performance in the era of Jim Crow segregation and Part Three details how increased educational and economic opportunities along with new media technologies enabled African Americans to use performing objects as a powerful mode of resistance to the objectification of Black bodies This is an essential study for any students of puppetry and material performance and particularly those concerned with African American performance and performance in North America more broadly The Anthology of Monterey Bay Poets, 2004 Ryan Masters, 2004 Anthology of work by poets living in the Monterey Bay Area California including Santa Cruz Monterey Aptos Seaside and Pacific Grove The Revolutions Felix Gilman, 2014-04-01 Following his spectacularly reviewed Half Made World duology Felix Gilman pens a sweeping stand alone tale of Victorian science fiction arcane exploration and planetary romance In 1893 young journalist Arthur Shaw is at work in the British Museum Reading Room when the Great Storm hits London wreaking unprecedented damage In its aftermath Arthur s newspaper closes owing him money and all his debts come due at once His fianc Josephine takes a job as a stenographer for some of the fashionable spiritualist and occult societies of fin de si cle London society At one of her meetings Arthur is given a job lead for what seems to be accounting work but at a salary many times what any clerk could expect The work is long and peculiar as the workers spend all day performing unnerving calculations that make them hallucinate or even go mad but the money is compelling Things are beginning to look up when the perils of dabbling in the esoteric suddenly come to a head A war breaks out between competing magical societies Josephine joins one of them for a hazardous occult exploration an experiment which threatens to leave her stranded at the outer limits of consciousness among the celestial spheres Arthur won t give up his great love so easily and hunts for a way to save her as Josephine fights for survival somewhere in the vicinity of Mars At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied
