Teachers Talking Aims Methods Attitudes To Change:

Teachers Talking; Aims, Methods, Attitudes to Change Tony Gibson, 1973 The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in the History of Education Gary McCulloch, 2020-11-25 This Reader brings together a wide range of material to present an international perspective on topical issues in history of education today Focusing on the enduring trends in this field this lively and informative Reader provides broad coverage of the subject and includes crucial topics such as higher education informal agencies of education schooling the state and local government education and social change and inequality curriculum teachers and pupils education work and the economy education and national identity With an emphasis on contemporary pieces that deal with issues relevant to the immediate real world this book represents the research and views of some of the most respected authors in the field today Gary McCulloch also includes a specially written introduction which provides a much needed context to the role of history in the current educational climate Students of history and history of education will find this Reader an important route map to further reading and understanding Teachers, Their World, and Their Work Ann Lieberman, Lynne Miller, 1984 In the first chapter of this book which deals with the world and work of teachers themes are explored that capture the essential dailiness of working in schools and a general description is given of what it is like to be a teacher The cyclical rhythms and patterns of the school year are considered as are the formal and informal guidelines used by teachers in their interactions with students and school personnel The social realities of teaching in the elementary school are delineated in the second chapter Case studies of two schools are presented to illuminate differences which may exist in school climates Chapter 3 points out the sharp difference between teaching at the elementary and secondary school school Major themes in discussing secondary level teaching include living in a bureaucracy working with adolescents and the faculty culture The problems inherent in relationships between teachers and principals and the responsibilities of leadership are discussed in the fourth chapter In the fifth chapter descriptions of school improvement efforts are analyzed The final chapter explores fundamental realities and needs to be considered in improving inservice teacher education and the roles of teachers and administrators in these endeavors JD The Media, Animal Conservation and Environmental Education John Blewitt, 2013-10-31 Natural History filmmaking has a long history but the generic boundaries between it and environmental and conservation filmmaking are blurred Nature environment and animal imagery has been a mainstay of television campaigning organisations and conservation bodies from Greenpeace to the Sierra Club with vibrant images being used effectively on posters leaflets and postcards and in coffee table books media releases short films and viral emails to educate and inform the general public However critics suggest that wildlife film and photography frequently convey a false image of the state of the world s flora and fauna The environmental educator David Orr once remarked that all education is environmental education and it is possible to see all image based communication in the same way The Media Animal Conservation and Environmental Education has contributions from filmmakers photographers researchers and academics from across the globe It explores the various ways in which film television and video are and can be used by conservationists and educators to encourage both a greater awareness of environmental and conservation issues and practical action designed to help endangered species This book is based on a special issue of the journal Environmental Education Research Resources in Education ,1990-10 Manual of Curatorship John M. A. Thompson,1984 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1973 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953 1955 Bulletin Malaŵi National Library Service Board,1981 Truancy and Indiscipline in Schools in Scotland Great Britain.
