Dieke, 2011 Tourism studies at Masters level are often divided into subsets of tourism such as environmental tourism, rural tourism and sports tourism. This book provides an overview of types of tourism and common themes studied in courses to allow undergraduate students to become familiar with a wide range of tourism topics at a foundation level, allowing them to make an informed decision about their future studies and career. It will also be a useful text for providing a broad brush introduction to the major topics that are covered in undergraduate courses. Popular subjects like urban tourism, festival

Anthropologica, 2004 The Slow Food Story Geoff Andrews, 2008-07-20 The Slow Food movement was set up in Italy as a response to the dominance of fast food chains, supermarkets and large scale agribusiness. It seeks to defend what it calls the universal right to pleasure and promotes an alternative approach to food production and consumption based on the promotion of good, clean and fair local products. This is the first in-depth study of the fascinating politics of Slow Food, which in twenty years has grown into an international organisation with more than 80 000 members in over 100 countries. With its roots in the 1960s and 1970s counter culture, Slow Food's distinctive politics lie in the unity between gastronomic pleasure and environmental responsibility. The movement crosses the left-right divide to embrace both the conservative desire to preserve traditional rural communities and an alternative virtuous idea of globalisation. Geoff Andrews shows that the alternative future embodied in Slow Food extends to all aspects of modern life. The Slow Food Story presents an extensive new critique of fast-moving, work-obsessed contemporary capitalist culture. Outlook, 2008-03-24 Food & Freedom

Carlo Petrini, 2015-09-01 Inspiring the global fight to revolutionize the way food is grown, distributed and eaten. In the almost thirty years since Carlo Petrini began the Slow Food organization, he has been constantly engaged in the fight for food justice. Beginning first in his native Italy and then expanding all over the world, the movement has created a powerful force for change. The essential argument of this book is that food is an avenue towards freedom. This uplifting and humanistic message is straightforward: if people can feed themselves, they can be free. In other words, if people can regain control over access to their food, how it is produced by whom and how it is distributed, then that can lead to a greater empowerment in all channels of life. Whether in the Amazon jungle talking with tribal elders or on rice paddies in rural Indonesia, the author engages the reader through the excitement of his journeys and the passion of his mission. Here Petrini reports upon some of the success stories that he has observed firsthand. From Chiapas to Puglia, Morocco to North Carolina, he has witnessed the many ways different peoples have dealt with food problems. This book allows us to learn from these case studies and lays out models for the future. Anthropologica, 2004 Slow Food Revolution Carlo Petrini, Gigi Padovani, 2006 Founded in Italy in 1986 by charismatic Italian gourmand Carlo Petrini, Slow Food has grown into a phenomenally successful movement against the uniformity and compromised quality of fast food and supermarket chains. With nearly 85 000 members in 45 countries around the world Slow Food has developed from a small grassroots group into the most influential gastronomic movement in the world The book takes the reader on a gastronomic journey through the practices and traditions of the world s ethnic cuisines from the artisanal cheeses of Italy to the oysters of Cape May and the native American turkey It includes testimonies from Slow Food representatives such as Alice Waters of Chez Panisse illustrating exactly what they are doing and what still needs to be done to preserve them
