

A Small Deceit

by David Shields

It was a small, unassuming house, nestled in a quiet neighborhood.

The house was old, with a dark, weathered exterior and a small, arched doorway.

The house was surrounded by a lush garden, with flowers and trees.

The house was the only one of its kind in the neighborhood.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.

The house was the only one that had a small, arched doorway.
