Smallscale Mining:

Artisanal and Small-scale Mining Thomas Hentschel, 2003 Based on studies from countries in Africa South America and Asia looks at small scale mining activities which often are both illegal and environmentally damaging and dangerous for workers and their communities Gives an overview on the issues and challenges involved concluding about how sustainable development can be achieved

The Socio-Economic Impacts of Artisanal and Small-Scale Mining in Developing Countries G.M. Hilson, 2003-01-01 The purpose of this book is to examine both the positive and negative socioeconomic impacts of artisanal and small scale mining in developing countries In recent years a number of governments have attempted to formalize this rudimentary sector of industry recognizing its socioeconomic importance However the industry continues to be plagued by

Social and Labour Issues in Small-scale Mines Norman Jennings, 1999 Income inequalities have been growing significantly within countries over the past two decades or so This new report presents a timely assessment of this issue based on new data and economic analysis and with full technical annexes It looks at the extent of this phenomenon and its sustainability analysing factors at work and examining the extent to which it may worsen as a result of the ongoing food and financial crises The report sheds light on the causes of excessive inequality and in particular the possible role of financial market deregulation It also examines the extent to which traditional policies and institutions can still address excessive market driven inequalities and whether traditional redistribution systems are being eroded as a result of a general trend towards lower taxation on high incomes In conclusion the report considers policy reforms that could reduce the risk of rising excessive inequalities while at the same time maintaining economic dynamism

Mining Law and Governance in Africa Victoria R. Nalule, 2023-06-09 This book explores the various issues that characterise the African mining sector drawing examples from different African countries and regional organisations Although there is a massive literature on the subject some issues have been neglected including the crucial role of digitalisation and technological advancement in resolving the environmental and social challenges faced in Artisanal and Small Scale Mining ASM deep sea mining mining contract negotiations and modernising mining laws to reflect the increasing role of critical minerals to mention but a few Therefore the book unpacks the critical issues associated with the mining sector explicitly reflecting on the practical solutions needed to address the challenges in the African mining sector This book uniquely analyses and adds flavour to international mining s fundamental concepts by describing a simulated annealing based approach appropriate for complex mining projects in Africa Book contributors comprise of academics from different universities including professors practitioners government policymakers NGO executives and a variety of different experts This multidisciplinary book will be of interest to African policymakers governments academics industry professionals energy and mining institutions international organisations universities across the globe and companies

Rural-Urban Dynamics Jytte Agergaard, Niels Fold, Katherine Gough, 2009-09-11 It has increasingly been recognised that rural and urban areas are inextricably interlinked This book adopts a fresh approach to the issue of rural urban dynamics through a study of the changing nature of livelihoods mobility and markets in ten study sites across four countries of Africa and Asia Building on detailed fieldwork conducted in Ghana Tanzania Vietnam and Thailand the authors explore how settlements and livelihoods are being transformed as long term inhabitants and recent migrants embrace new economic activities many of which are linked to global markets The book is structured around the concept of frontier which is conceptualized as being a dynamic space where the forces of economic demographic and social change are brought to bear The study sites include agricultural frontiers coffee cocoa pineapples and fresh fruit handicraft and manufacturing frontiers and mining frontiers gold and diamonds In all of the cases global value chain dynamics have played a pivotal role in shaping local livelihoods Some settlements are developing into new urban centres whilst others are suffering from a boom and bust experience due to the unreliability of export markets The similarities and differences between the frontier settlements are drawn out by comparing frontiers of similar types and by highlighting the theoretical and policy implications of the findings from all the frontier types The originality of the book lies in its combination of conceptual clarity methodological coherence and empirical richness By combining detailed empirical findings with theoretical insight from debates on livelihoods global value chains mobility patterns settlement dynamics and rural urban relations the book sheds new light on these issues within an overall framework of development trajectories in Africa and Asia Given scholars and international agencies current interest in the spatial dimensions of economic development this contribution is particularly timely with its fresh geographical approach to development issues this book is a pertinent and authoritative read for anyone researching or learning in the field of development
