dominated by the Machiavellian politicking of the clergy and the nobility after the downfall of the Emperor Despised by his family because of his extravagant taste for reading Julien makes of Napoleon his surrogate father and plans his future with militaristic almost obsessive precision The army The Red is no longer in fashion and so he chooses his career among the pious men of faith The Black First as a seminarist and then as a tutor of Latin Julien will learn the bearing the deferential poise and the conversational skills to achieve his so much desired goal that will lead him to Paris the capital of sophisticated Savoir Faire

Stendhal: The Red and the Black Stirling Haig, 1989-06-22 Stendhal's great novel The Red and the Black published in 1830 is seen as one of the most distinguished monuments of literary realism In this introductory study Stirling Haig shows how this realism derives from the incorporation of both history and legal reportage into the novel and how it combines autobiography with mimesis Professor Haig locates the novel in the context of Stendhal's own experiences as a Commissariat officer in the Napoleonic army journalist opera lover salon dandy and traveller in Italy and Restoration France and highlights the constant inter penetration of personal documentary and fictional elements in Stendhal's writings

The Red and the Black Stendhal, C. K. Scott-Moncrieff, 2014-02-08 The small town of Verrieres may be regarded as one of the most attractive in the Franche Comte Its white houses with their high pitched roofs of red tiles are spread over the slope of a hill the slightest contours of which are indicated by clumps of sturdy chestnuts The Doubs runs some hundreds of feet below its fortifications built in times past by the Spaniards and now in ruins Verrieres is sheltered on the north by a high mountain a spur of the Jura The jagged peaks of the Verra put on a mantle of snow in the first cold days of October A torrent which comes tearing down from the mountain passes through Verrieres before emptying its waters into the Doubs and supplies power to a great number of sawmills this is an extremely simple industry and procures a certain degree of comfort for the majority of the inhabitants who are of the peasant rather than of the bourgeois class It is not however the sawmills that have made this little town rich It is to the manufacture of printed calicoes known as Mulhouse stuffs that it owes the general prosperity which since the fall of Napoleon has led to the refacing of almost all the houses in Verrieres
