IMF Staff Papers, Volume 49, No. 1 Mr. Robert P. Flood, 2002-04-18 This paper presents details of a symposium on forecasting performance I organized under the auspices of the IMF Staff Papers The assumption that the forecaster's goal is to do as well as possible in predicting the actual outcome is sometimes questionable In the context of private sector forecasts this is because the incentives for forecasters may induce them to herd rather than to reveal their true forecasts Public sector forecasts may also be distorted although for different reasons Forecasts associated with IMF programs for example are often the result of negotiations between the IMF staff and the country authorities and are perhaps more accurately viewed as goals or targets rather than pure forecasts The standard theory of time series forecasting involves a variety of components including the choice of an information set the choice of a cost function and the evaluation of forecasts in terms of the average costs of the forecast errors It is generally acknowledged that by including more relevant information in the information set one should be able to produce better forecasts

Simons, Andrew M.,2016-04-01 Centralized implementation mandates of Ethiopia's Productive Safety Net Program PSNP require a full and uniform payment to each person in an eligible household In practice however communities do not receive enough funding to fully implement the program Therefore communities must exercise local discretion in allocating aid We recover the preferences revealed by local communities aid allocations and find they are pro poor allocating more to underprivileged groups with lower wage earning potential e.g teenage girls vs teenage boys adult women vs adult men elderly vs working age adults Despite communities pro poor implementation the program with constrained funding does not significantly lower overall poverty rates In simulations with full funding the program reduces poverty in both cases of centralized and decentralized program control using different criteria for the allocation of funds The major policy implication is that the financial scale of the safety net program is more important to poverty reduction than the locus of control over implementation Step Ahead 4 Activity Book (Express) Robyn Mann,2004 Dancing Marguerite Wilson,1899 Mind and Body ,1901 American Physical Education Review ,1925 Includes abstracts of magazine articles and Book reviews
