Re-thinking Travel Writing Ben Stubbs, Lee Mylne, 2024-03-30 This book stems from the question that we as co authors grappled with for the past 3 plus years while in our own periods of stasis during the pandemic. What place does the travel writing genre hold in a post COVID world? With the massive interruptions to travel and travel writing across 2020-2023 as the pandemic forced us indoors and into isolation it also raised many other pertinent questions about the practice of and future of travel writing. Part of the prompt for this book comes from the post pandemic assumption that in an ecologically fraught less mobile and more uncertain world there may not be a place for travel writing as we know it to exist in any meaningful way. We examine the problems and solutions apparent for travel writing as it engages with a period of re-thinking prompted by the pandemic though necessary for a plethora of other reasons as well. As academics and travel writing practitioners with decades of experience in the field we offer a unique perspective on this topic as we have the in the field experience of professional travel writers and we have the academic grounding to better understand the history, theoretical concerns and contradictions of the genre to provide a more in depth perspective to our travel writing colleagues. This grounding allows us to access a unique and valuable perspective for Re-thinking Travel Writing: The Journey of a Genre for academics, aspiring travel writers and contemporary colleagues in the field.

Theories on the Move Şebnem Susam-Sarajevo, 2006-01-01 Within translation studies books on translating conceptually dense texts such as philosophical or theoretical writings are remarkably few. Although the translation of literature has been a favourite topic for many decades the translation of theories on literature has been neglected. The phrase 'theories of translation' is everywhere but translation of theories is a rare sight. On the other hand the term 'translation' has become a commonplace in literary and cultural studies yet usually as a rhetorical figure describing the fate of those who struggle between two worlds and two languages such as migrants or women. Not much attention has been paid to the role of translation proper in contemporary circulation of ideas. The book addresses these gaps in translation studies and in literary studies for the first time by examining two specific cases where translation strategies and patterns crucially influenced the reception of imported schools of thought. By examining the importation of structuralism and semiotics into Turkish and of French feminism into English it invites the readers to think about the impact of translation on the transmission of ideas across linguistic, cultural borders and power differentials. It is therefore of particular interest to the scholars working in translation studies in literary and cultural theory and in gender studies.

Strange Intimacies - Affect, Embodiment and Materiality in Virginia Woolf and Jean Rhys Eret Talviste, 2025-10-31 This book explores how the novels by Virginia Woolf and Jean Rhys To the Lighthouse 1927, The Waves 1931, Between the Acts 1941, After Leaving Mr Mackenzie 1930, Voyage in the Dark 1934 and Wide Sargasso Sea 1966.

maintain an attachment to and love for life amid disenchanting times of war and social change Drawing from Woolf s and Rhys s personal writings and fictions Talviste demonstrates that Woolf and Rhys locate this attachment to life in the moments and atmospheres of strange intimacy in sensual affective and oddly intimate moments that function as cracks in the dominant patriarchal and imperial ideologies of Woolf s and Rhys s times To theorise strange intimacy this monograph rethinks the feminist works of Helene Cixous especially her attention to materiality affect and embodiment in the light of contemporary affect studies and new materialism

Fiction Fiction Elena Peytchinska,Thomas Ballhausen,2023-09-05 Operative fiction

New narrative strategies With Fiction Fiction visual artist Elena Peytchinska and poet Thomas Ballhausen are continuing their linguistic artistic exploration of space and language as well as with the intertwining of drawing and literature While their previous works FAUNA 2018 and FLORA 2020 focused on strategies of rapprochement between the arts and the sciences based on linguistic artistic premises their latest work interrogates the relationship between the science of fiction and the fiction of science Fiction Fiction presents a relational practice oriented model of operative fiction which not only encounters the supposedly unthinkable other but integrates it as an active and necessary part of thought and creative processes Literature and as artistic research following on from FAUNA 2018 and FLORA 2020 Artistic reflections on contemporary philosophy and its sociocritical contexts With contributions by Lucia D Errico Sabina Holzer Elisabeth Sch fer and Ferdinand Schmatz

Style in Theory Ivan Callus,James Corby,Gloria Lauri-Lucente,2012-12-06 What in theory is style

How has style been rethought in literary theory Drawing together leading academics working within and across the disciplines of English philosophy literary theory and comparative literature Style in Theory Between Philosophy and Literature sets out to rethink the important but all too often overlooked issue of style exploring in particular how the theoretical humanities open conceptual spaces that afford and encourage reflection on the nature of style the ways in which style is experienced and how style allows disciplinary boundaries to be both drawn and transgressed Offering incisive reflections on style from a diverse and contemporary range of theoretical and methodological perspectives the essays contained in this volume critically revisit and challenge accepted accounts of style and provide fresh and compelling readings of the relevance in any rethinking of style of specific works by the likes of Shakespeare Petrarch Kant Nietzsche Heidegger Deleuze Blanchot Derrida Nancy Cixous and Meillassoux
