Stilwell Papers:

The Eagle-Dragon Alliance Wesley Marvin Bagby, 1992 This general history based on archival and monographic sources some of which were not available to earlier writers is designed to be a balanced and comprehensive synthesis Seldom does a historian come upon a richer mix of colorful personalities dramatic action Byzantine intrigue and momentous historical issues The impact of Americans on China during the war was enormous Much of U S activity in China because of inadequate knowledge of China s culture government and military capabilities was harmful to China and Chiang s regime Moreover U S efforts to induce Chiang to make reforms designed to improve his regime s war effort and chances for post war survival were ineffective The sulfurous American General Joseph Stilwell assigned to serve as Chiang s chief of staff underestimating the fighting ability of the Japanese and disregarding Chiang s advice followed a strategy in the first Burma campaign that contributed to the loss of Chiang s best divisions and the chance of holding north Burma Stilwell s obsessive demand for a new Burma campaign involved him in bitter controversies with Chiang the British and U S Air Commander Claire Chennault When the British demanded that Stilwell be removed from Burma he with Roosevelt s support demanded that Chiang turn over to him the command of China s armed forces which was equivalent to control of China But Americans could not enforce this demand on Chiang who expelled Stilwell from China Ambassador Patrick Hurley then attempted to arrange a coalition government between Chiang and the Communists a proposal Chiang rejected At Roosevelt s insistence Chiang allowed America to send U S personnel the Dixie Mission to the Communist headquarters at Yenan Mao Tse Tung convinced Foreign Service Officer John Service and others that he sought a cooperative relationship with America in order among other reasons to reduce his dependence on Russia Before Stilwell s dismissal Americans had decided to arm the Communists but the removal of Stilwell defeated that purpose and U S aid continued to go exclusively to Chiang It appeared that the ideological preferences of Americans brought about a postponement of cooperation with the ultimately victorious Chinese Communists despite an eventual common interest in keeping Soviet influence in East Asia in check This comprehensive study is illustrated and includes a chronology glossary bibliography and index BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved China-Burma-India Theater: Stilwell's Command Problems Charles F.
