Textiles In Trust:

Textiles in Trust Ksynia Marko,1997 Textile Ascendancies Elisha Renne,Salihu Maiwada,2020-05-11 Until this century Northern Nigeria was a major center of textile production and trade Textile Ascendancies Aesthetics Production and Trade in Northern Nigeria examines this dramatic change in textile aesthetics technologies and social values in order to explain the extraordinary shift in textile demand production and trade Textile Ascendancies provides information for the study of the demise of textile manufacturing outside Nigeria The book also suggests the conundrum considered by George Orwell concerning the benefits and disadvantages of mechanical progress and digital progress for human existence While textile mill workers in northern Nigeria were proud to participate in the mechanization of weaving the tendency for the mechanization of the world represented by more efficient looms and printing equipment in China has contributed to the closing of Nigerian mills and unemployment Textile Ascendancies will appeal to anthropologists for its analyses of social identity as well as how the ethnic identity of consumers influences continued handwoven textile production The consideration of aesthetics and fashionable dress will appeal to specialists in textiles and clothing It will be useful to economic historians for the comparative analysis of textile manufacturing decline in the 21st century It will also be of interest to those thinking about global futures about digitalization and how new ways of making cloth and clothing may provide both employment and environmentally sound production practices Death and the Textile Industry in Nigeria Elisha P Renne,2020-11-23

This book draws upon thinking about the work of the dead in the context of deindustrialization specifically the decline of the textile industry in Kaduna Nigeria and its consequences for deceased workers families The author shows how the dead work in various ways for Christians and Muslims who worked in KTL mill in Kaduna not only for their families who still hope to receive termination remittances but also as connections to extended family members in other parts of Nigeria and as claims to land and houses in Kaduna Building upon their actions as a way of thinking about the ways that the dead work for the living the author focuses on three major themes The first considers the growth of the city of Kaduna as a colonial construct which as the capital of the Protectorate of Northern Nigeria was organized by neighborhoods by public cemeteries and by industrial areas The second theme examines the establishment of textile mills in the industrial area and new ways of thinking about work and labor organization time regimens and health particularly occupational ailments documented in mill clinic records The third theme discusses the consequences of KTL mill workers deaths for the lives of their widows and children This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies development studies anthropology of work and the history of industrialization The Introduction Chapter 2 and the Conclusion of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003058137> Northern Archaeological Textiles Frances Pritchard,John Peter Wild,2015-04-30 This volume presents the papers from the seventh North European Symposium for Archaeological Textiles

NESAT held in Edinburgh in 1999 The themes covered demonstrate a variety of scholarship that will encourage anyone working in this important and stimulating area of archaeology From the golden robes of a Roman burial to the fashionable Viking in Denmark through to the early modern period and more technological aspects of textile research these twenty four papers five of which are in German provide a wealth of new information on the study of ancient textiles in northern Europe

Textiles in Trust Ksytia Marko,1997 This volume presents the proceedings of the symposium of the same name held in September 1995 to celebrate the centenary of the National Trust The papers deal with many specific case histories in all areas of the conservation of historic textiles including upholstery embroidery costumes curtains carpets and tapestry They reveal the ingenuity skill and care of the conservators who undertake work for the National Trust to preserve the contents of historic country houses
