A Paraphrase on the New Testament first printed in 1685 Baxter's Paraphrase of the New Testament was the work of Richard Baxter a Puritan who was known for his many writings on practical piety Apparently Baxter defamed the Church of England in this paraphrase and was imprisoned and severely punished as a result but he was eventually released The text contains doctrinal and practical notes throughout which are characteristically plain and brief but meant to help the reader in understanding the text His paraphrase was also meant to aid families in daily reading and to help all people read and understand the New Testament Interestingly our copy contains a penned quote from the court trial of Baxter The Contemporary Review, 1872 A Paraphrase on the New Testament, with notes, doctrinal and practical ... by the late Rev. Mr. Richard Baxter ... Together with a sketch of the author's life. [With the text.], 1798 Life of Joseph the Prophet Edward William Tullidge, 1880 A Paraphrase on the New Testament, with Notes, Doctrinal and Practical ... To which is Added Mr. Baxter's Account of His Notes on Some Particular Texts, for which He was Imprisoned.
