

WHAT ARE MORALS?

Morals are a person's standards of behavior or beliefs concerning what is and is not acceptable for them to do.

Morals are each individual's own rules to live in society. Therefore, morals are subjective and personal.

A moral behavior is driven by the desire to be good. On the contrary, an ethical behavior is an action that is following the rules of what is considered correct in society.

That Morals Thing:

Culture and Morality: Things We Value Michael Shengtao Wu, Christine Ma-Kellams, Tian Xie, Yanyan Zhang, Yingnan Zhao, 2025-03-20 Morality refers to a set of values relating to right conduct against which behavior is judged to be acceptable or unacceptable. It is a form of social norms that guides human behaviors. Morality forms a fundamental part of our culture but there is a great range of variation in moral standards and the things we value in each given culture. Behavior that is completely normal to Westerners such as choosing a job or partner at one's individual will could be considered immoral in other cultures. People are rewarded with money and reputations if they exhibit moral actions approved by cultural expectations and are punished by sanctions for moral violations. We also attribute positive feedback to people we consider moral e.g. empathetic filial and negative feedback to those we consider immoral untrustworthy disgusting. Thus it is important to study the psychological antecedents, processes and outcomes of morality.

The Servile Mind Kenneth R. Minogue, 2010 This is a work of meticulous logic and vast erudition. It provides an invaluable resource for anyone who has wondered why European elites embarked upon their disastrous cultural revolution in pursuit of abstract internationalist idealism, destroying in the process their intellectual and cultural heritage.
