Christ Is All That Matters Phillip Brown,2024-04-11 Phillip Brown s life changed forever on a May evening in 2005 He fell twenty six feet from a roof gable landing on his shoulders and head He survived Twelve staples closed the head wound but the worst damage was invisible tucked within the complex webs of his brain A traumatic brain injury stole everything he thought was his gifts he took for granted He began journaling In Christ Is All That Matters Brown offers a compilation of essays written in the black of morning his first waking hours with the God he loves Chronicling his journey with Christ he shares the goodness of God at work in his life and tells how God used tragedy to transform his walk with God Brown puts his heart on paper his fragility failures sorrows joys and his hopes and dreams the conversations he has with God Every essay engages a singular desire Each encourages one and all to embrace the God who loves them the God who keeps them the God who knows them by name

“That’s how we do it...we treat them all the same” Fiona Cowdell,2014-09-01

The prevalence of dementia is increasing rapidly as the population ages and there is a steady rise in people with dementia being admitted to acute hospitals Media coverage of the care received by people with dementia in acute hospitals is almost wholly negative The purpose of this book is to provide a detailed description of what the experience both positive and negative is really like from the perspectives of patients lay carers and health and social care staff and to propose a model for improving care The book comprises four elements A literature review sets person focused research in the context of dementia research as a whole Research illuminates the experiences of acute hospital care for people with dementia through ethnographic description and narratives To improve practice a development model that engages staff on a cognitive and emotional level based on the philosophies of confluent education and situated learning is explained Finally the strands are drawn together to demonstrate that people with dementia even those at an advanced stage and with superimposed physical illness can be engaged in research that is both ethical and meaningful Improvements in practice are possible and they need to be underpinned by a belief in the personhood of staff as well as that of patients Areas for further research and practice
