Byrne, 2018-04-27 Although this book describes three backpacking journeys undertaken by my wife Vivien and myself it is not simply an account of those walks Essentially it is about people The people we met as we went along our way and ourselves About our experience frequently hilarious sometimes frightening but always unique About our feelings which we sawed as wildly as the amazing paths we walked along From the dizzy heights of hope to the black depths of despair and what we discovered about our fellow human beings and this wonderful ever changing world in which we live All the events and situations depicted in each journey are true although obviously not exactly as they have been written down The three areas depicted in this book are Mid Lancashire near the Forest of Bowland The South West Peninsular Coast Path from Minehead to Heddons Mouth The Pembrokeshire Coast Path Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 Moonlit Thirst Nikki
