Screening Justice Steven Kohm, Sonia Bookman, Pauline Greenhill, 2016-12-07T00:00:00Z What do Canadian films say about crime and justice in Canada? What purpose do Canadian crime films serve politically and culturally? Screening Justice is a scholarly exploration of films that focus on crime and justice in Canada. Crime films are pivotal for understanding and shaping Canadian sensibilities by setting out widely available templates for thinking about crime and justice in Canadian society. Spanning disciplines and examining films from across Canada, Screening Justice is the first comprehensive Canadian volume on crime films that takes up cultural criminology's call for more critical scholarly analyses of the interplay between crime culture and society.

The American Ski Directory William Paine, 1961 Blackjack Autumn Barry Meadow, 2012-05-10 When Barry Meadow decided to take two months off from his everyday life to play blackjack in every Nevada casino he had no idea what he would find. Leaving behind his business, his fiancee, and his son, he set out on the road with a suitcase, a tape recorder, and $8,000 on the trip of a lifetime. He ran into cowboys and Indians, suffered the Stardust curse, split 10s in Winnemucca, and learned more about real world gambling than anyone should have to know. With wit and wisdom, Meadow takes you on an incredible journey—literally, figuratively, even spiritually—all within the context of a professional blackjack player's remarkable way of life. Gambling lessons, life lessons, Nevada geography lessons—this one's got it all. One of the most highly acclaimed gambling books in the past half decade.

Italian Crime Filmography, 1968-1980 Roberto Curti, 2013-09-28 In the 1970s, Italy after the decline of the Spaghetti Western, crime films became the most popular, profitable, and controversial genre. In a country plagued with violence, political tensions, and armed struggle, these films managed to capture the anxiety and anger of the times in their tales of tough cops, ruthless criminals, and urban paranoia. Recent years have seen renewed critical interest in the genre, thanks in part to such illustrious fans as Quentin Tarantino. This book examines all of the 220 crime films produced in Italy between 1968 and 1980, the period when the genre first appeared and grew to its peak. Entries include a complete cast and crew list, home video releases, a plot summary, and the author's own analysis. Excerpts from a variety of sources are included: academic texts, contemporary reviews, and interviews with filmmakers, scriptwriters, and actors. There are many onset stills and film posters.

Ted Bundy Steven Winn, David Merrill, 1979 Bonneville Salt Flats "Landspeed" Louise Ann Noeth, 2020-11-09 Astronaut John Glenn used Utah's Bonneville Salt Flats as a landmark from space, but on Earth amateur motorsports devotees have used the blistering hot flat land as a speed laboratory for more than a century. On August 22, 1949, the hot rodders joined the pageant of power with their handcrafted cars, trucks, and motorcycles for a one-time event, but never stopped coming back, trying to go faster every run down the multi-mile course. All came looking for the answer to the same question: How fast will it go? Those efforts have made them the fastest people on the planet, reaching speeds in excess of 500 miles per hour. On the salt, people find the limits of their courage, learn what daring greatly is all about, and realize why a Bonneville Salt Flats speed record is an internationally respected pedigree People who race on the salt flats become a family bound together by speed a powerful force that erases ethnic economic political and religious barriers They are land speed racers And this is their story The Redskin ,1974
