

Moonlight by the beach ♥♥

Beautiful are those nights
Where moonlight paves the way to our hearts
Leaning on your shoulder my love
Listening to your heartbeats
The beachside looks mystical
With the waves gushing and slowly washing our feet
The beauty of the timid moon rising to starry skies
My love I ask for nothing more
But the love from every beat of your heart
And the care from every touch of your hands
Each hold of yours making me wish to live more
And every kiss of yours making me die for you
I wish that this sight be ever framed in our hearts
Like the beautiful picture on a wall.

Love Siyaa

The Of Moonlight Poems:

In the Moonlight Baharuddin Ahmad, 2016 Music and Moonlight O'Shaughnessy, 1874 Poems of Fernando Pessoa Fernando Pessoa, 1998-06 Fernando Pessoa is Portugal's most important contemporary poet. He wrote under several identities which he called heteronyms: Alberto Caeiro, Álvaro de Campos, Ricardo Reis, and Bernardo Soares. He wrote fine poetry under his own name as well, and each of his voices is completely different in subject, temperament, and style. This volume brings back into print the comprehensive collection of his work published by Ecco Press in 1986. The Book of Moonlight [poems] Richard Behm, 1978-01-01 A Collection of Poems by America's Younger Poets, 1888 The Magic Cube of Ancient Chinese Poetry Ge Zhaoguang, 2023-06-23 This book focuses on the linguistic perspective of classical Chinese poetry and its changes and development in different historical periods. It offers a combination of theoretical analysis and aesthetic appreciation of exemplary poems. The author discusses the following aspects of classical Chinese poetry: the relationships between background and meaning in the interpretation of a poem; how readers can deal with the tangle of linguistic approach and intuitive perception in interpreting poems; the engagement and disengagement of the poet's thought flow with and from the word order of the verse; the tonal and metrical schemes; and the three special features of classical Chinese poetry: the significance and role of allusions. Xu Zi and Shi Yan. Last, the author analyses the development of Chinese poetry from the Vernacular Song Dynasty Style to the Vernacular Modern Style. It will be a great read for students and scholars of East Asian studies, Chinese studies, linguistics, and those interested in Chinese poetry in general. The book aims to lead readers to discover a fresh and amazing world of classical Chinese poetry, a fantastic panoramic picture of its beauty and charm, and a poetic feast that the reader may not otherwise be privileged to enjoy. Mother Tongues and Other Tongues, 2024-09-23 Edited by Simona Gallo and Martina Codeluppi. Mother Tongues and Other Tongues: Creating and Translating Sinophone Poetry analyzes contemporary translingual Sinophone poetry and discusses its creative processes and translational implications along with their intersections. How do self-translation and other translingual practices mold the Sinophone poetic field? How and why do contemporary Sinophone writers produce new lyrical identities in and through translation? How do we translate contemporary Sinophone poetry? By addressing such questions and by bringing together scholars, writers, and translators of poetry, this volume offers unique insights into Sinophone Studies while sparking a transdisciplinary dialogue with Poetry Studies, Translation Studies, and Cultural Studies. A Net to Snare the Moonlight, 2015-04-01 From one of the twentieth century's most exuberant poets, a collection of children's work fit for mischievous sprites from all parts of the garden hedge and cottage hearth. Olin's illustrations beautifully capture the magic and mystery of Lindsay's poems. Here the moon is busy watching hyenas, scarecrows, and urchins of the sky as intently as grandmothers and shepherd dogs watch children as they sleep. The Collected Poems of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 1998-10-01 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize and the Nobel Prize. A central figure in twentieth-century American literature.

Robert Penn Warren 1905 1989 was appointed by the Library of Congress as the first Poet Laureate of the United States in 1955 Although better known for his fiction especially his novel All the King's Men it is mainly his poetry spanning sixty years fifteen volumes of verse and a wide range of styles that reveals Warren to be one of America's foremost men of letters In this indispensable volume John Burt Foster's literary executor has assembled every poem Warren ever published with the exception of Brother to Dragons including the many poems he published in The Fugitive and other magazines as well as those that appeared in his small press works and broadsides Burt has also exhaustively collated all of the published versions of Warren's poems which in some cases appeared as many as six different times with substantive revisions in every line as well as his typescripts and proofs And since Warren never seemed to reread any of his books without a pencil in his hand Burt has referred to Warren's personal library copies This comprehensive edition also contains textual notes lists of emendations and explanatory notes Warren was born and raised in Guthrie Kentucky where southern agrarian values and a predilection for storytelling were ingrained in him as a young boy By 1925 when he graduated from Vanderbilt University he was already the most promising of that exceptional set of poets and intellectuals known as the Fugitives Warren devoted most of the 1940s and 1950s to writing prose and literary criticism but from the late 1950s he composed primarily poetry with each successive volume of verse that he penned demonstrating his rigorous and growing commitment to that genre The mature visionary power and technical virtuosity of his work in the 1970s and early 1980s emanated from his strongly held belief that only insofar as the work of art establishes and expresses a self can it engage us Many of Warren's later poems which he deemed some of my best rejoice in the possibilities of old age and the poet's ability for continually expanding in a vital process of definition affirmation revision and growth a process that is the image we may say of the life process

Metaphysical and Mid-Late Tang Poetry: A Baroque Comparison Pengfei Wang, 2020-03-05

Wishing to expand on the minimal scholarship on the topic of Metaphysical and Mid Late Tang poets under the general category of Baroque this book offers a comparative analysis of poems from the Metaphysical poets John Donne Andrew Marvell and Richard Crashaw and a selection of Tang poetry by Meng Jiao Li He and Li Shangyin By following Nietzsche's definition of Baroque as a poetic style found in any period and country and the concept of art as allegory the author approaches the analysis of these poems using allegorical reading The application of this non traditional method of investigation and analysis has produced ground breaking implications in the area of literary criticism paving the way for future additions to the growing body of work on Baroque poetry Therefore it is likely to hold great appeal to literature researchers and scholars as well as those studying Tang poetry Metaphysical poetry and Comparative Studies
