The Orchard Thieves:

The Orchard Thieves Elizabeth Jolley, 1995 A story of family relationships When the middle sister of three grown up daughters arrives home from England peace in their mother's house is shattered Tensions and conflicts arise as each member of the family feels their own difficulties are unique It is up to the Grandmother with imagination acceptance and affection to diffuse the situation The author has written many short stories and novels many of which have won awards These include the Miles Franklin Award for The Well and the France Australia Literacy Translation Award for The Sugar Mother

Review of The Orchard Thieves, 1995      Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay, 2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don't people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in malestream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women's autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women's spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women's spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women's religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point      The Moravian Night Peter Handke, 2016-12-06 An odyssey through the mind and memory of a washed up writer from one of Europe's most provocative novelists Nobel Prize winner Peter Handke Mysteriously summoned to a houseboat on the Morava River a few friends associates and collaborators of an old writer listen as he tells a story that will last until dawn the tale of the once well known writer's recent odyssey across Europe As his story unfolds it visits places that represent stages of the narrator's and the continent's past many now lost or irrecoverably changed through war death and the subtler erosions of time His wanderings take him from the Balkans to Spain Germany and Austria from a congress of experts on noise sickness to a clandestine international gathering of Jew's harp virtuosos His story and its telling are haunted by a beautiful stranger a woman who has a preternatural hold over the writer and appears sometimes as a demon sometimes as the longed for destination of his travels Powerfully alive honest and at times deliciously satirical The Moravian Night

explores the mind and memory of an aging writer tracking the anxieties, angers, fears, and pleasures of a life inseparable from the recent history of Central Europe. In crystalline prose, Peter Handke traces and interrogates his own thoughts and perceptions while endowing the world with a mythic dimension. As Jeffrey Eugenides writes, Handke's sharp eye is always finding a strange beauty amid this colorless world. The Moravian Night is at once an elegy for the lost and forgotten and a novel of self-examination and uneasy discovery from one of world literature's great voices. Epistles Richard Wilson Moss, 2009-07-16 Richard's poetry of 2009 featuring 12 poetic letters to personal apostles. After The Celebration Ken Gelder, Paul Salzman, 2009-01-01 After the Celebration explores Australian fiction from 1989 to 2007 after Australia's bicentenary to the end of the Howard government. In this literary history, Ken Gelder and Paul Salzman combine close attention to Australian novels with a vivid depiction of their contexts: cultural, social, political, historical, national, and transnational. From crime fiction to the postmodern colonial novel, from Australian grunge to rural apocalypse fiction, from the Asian diasporic novel to the action blockbuster, Gelder and Salzman show how Australian novelists such as Frank Moorhouse, Elizabeth Jolley, Peter Carey, Kim Scott, Steven Carroll, Kate Grenville, Tim Winton, Alexis Wright, and many others have used their work to chart our position in the world. The literary controversies over history, identity, feminism, and gatekeeping are read against the politics of the day. Provocative and compelling, After the Celebration captures the key themes and issues in Australian fiction where we have been and what we have become. Woman in a Lampshade Elizabeth Jolley, 1992-02-21 In this masterly collection of stories, Elizabeth Jolley has created a splendid array of characters, all of whom fail to achieve the expected. Her stories are sometimes slyly comic, sometimes disturbing, but always they are written with a delicacy and compassion as moving as the characters themselves. The 20 best novels of thailand Marcel Barang, 2004-01-01 Everything you need to know about Thai literature from its origins to Thai fiction today. Literary criteria used in the selection of the 20 best novels of the last century from The circus of life to The white shadow, plots, excerpts, critical assessment.
