The Of The Epic:

Return of the Epic Film Andrew Elliot, 2015-03-05 With the success of Gladiator both critics and scholars enthusiastically announced the return of a genre which had lain dormant for thirty years. However, this return raises important new questions which remain unanswered: Why did the epic come back and why did it fall out of fashion? Are these the same kinds of epics as the 1950s and 60s, or are there aesthetic differences? Can we treat Kingdom of Heaven, 300, and Thor indiscriminately as one genre? Are non-Western histories like Hero and Mongol epics too? Finally, what precisely do we mean when we talk about the return of the epic film and why are they back? The Return of the Epic Film offers a fresh way of thinking about a body of films which has dominated our screens for a decade. With contributions from top scholars in the field, the collection adopts a range of interdisciplinary perspectives to explore the epic film in the twenty-first century.

The Multivalence of an Epic Parul Pandya Dhar, 2023-10-06 This volume examines the Rāmāyaṇa traditions of South India and Southeast Asia. Bringing together 19 well-known scholars in Rāmāyaṇa studies from Cambodia, Canada, France, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, UK, and USA, this thought-provoking and elegantly illustrated volume engages with the inherent plurality, diversity, and adaptability of the Rāmāyaṇa in changing socio-political, religious, and cultural contexts. The journey and localization of the Rāmāyaṇa is explored in its manifold expressions from classical to folk, from temples and palaces to theatres and by-lanes in cities and villages, and from ancient to modern times. Regional *Rāmāyaṇa*s from different parts of South India and Southeast Asia are placed in deliberate juxtaposition to enable a historically informed discussion of their connected pasts across land and seas. The three parts of this volume, organized as visual, literary, and performance cultures, discuss the sculpted, painted, inscribed, written, recited, and performed *Rāmāyaṇa*s. A related emphasis is on the way boundaries of medium and genre have been crossed in the visual, literary, and performed representations of the Rāmāyaṇa.

The Tradition of the Trojan War in Homer and the Epic Cycle Jonathan S. Burgess, 2001-12-21 Burgess challenges Homer's authority on the history and legends of the Trojan War, placing the Iliad and Odyssey in the larger, often overlooked context of the entire body of the Greek epic poetry of the Archaic Age.

CVC Veri: A Guide to the Epic of the Martian Empire Lee Streiff, 2013-05-22 Introduction by Lee Streiff. In 1937, James Streiff and Bob Parks created the Epic of the Martian Empire. In 1942, Paul Carter added his vision of the Cosmic Vortex to it, and the Universe was never the same again. Lee Streiff: Once we lived in the world of the Martian Empire, but that now seems like a long time ago. It all began in those last remaining years before World War II changed our consciousnesses forever. It was an ephemeral still time, a quiet space in which we could dream about the future without the burden of its consequences: ghastly war, genocide, the atomic bomb. It was in 1937, and my brother James was 13 and in the eighth grade at Robinson Junior High School in Wichita, Kansas. And in James's mind, he was fashioning a cosmic empire filled with strange and wonderful creatures and races, in which a stalwart group of Exiles from the planet Mars were the chief actors and heroes. This Empire, the Martian Empire, eventually spread over most of the known Universe before it finally faded away in 1948 During the eleven years it flourished however the Martian Epic became very elaborate covering some 15 billion years of Martian history and Martian technology manners and morals art music religion language and literature And it generated a narrative Epic that encompassed many galaxies Although a number of people became involved in this epic Bob Parks John Roth Robert Frickel Charles Goodrum and Robert Arnold among others it was first and foremost the vision of James who worked out and brought together the maps timelines the celestial spaces the customs and the characters that made up the Martian Empire in all its diverse grandeur In early 1937 I was only four years old and so it was that most of my childhood and youth were somehow surrounded or suffused with the images and tales of the Epic However it was not until I reached the age of eleven that I became the brief inheritor of and participant in the affairs of the Epic itself It was during World War II in 1943 that I first took over the job of running the business of the Martian Empire while all of its members were away from Wichita in the Army Navy and Air Force Knowing that he would soon be drafted James began grooming me for the task early in that year He reported for active Military duty on June 3 1943 and that changed the course of my daily life I was now on my own with a heavy responsibility I published The Martian News Letter the official journal of the group using carbon paper and a bit later a hectograph published The Order of Shultz which circulated the business of the inner circle reorganized The Files answered correspondence among the far flung Martians scattered around the globe and did research for a number of topics for James using my contacts in the world of Science Fiction Fandom When James returned from active service in February of 1946 my task had been completed and in any case my interests were largely turning in other directions By 1947 in my sophomore year at East High School I was even leaving Science Fiction itself behind and was now involved in art and literature But then that is another story In the Following seven Chapters Lee Streiff describes in his Guide to the Epic of the Martian Empire of how the tales and creation of the Epic all came about The idyll of the Rue Plumet and the epic of the Rue Saint Denis Victor Hugo,1887
