Scouting and Scoring Christopher J. Phillips,2021-03-30 An in depth look at the intersection of judgment and statistics in baseball Scouting and scoring are considered fundamentally different ways of ascertaining value in baseball Scouting seems to rely on experience and intuition scoring on performance metrics and statistics In Scouting and Scoring Christopher Phillips rejects these simplistic divisions He shows how both scouts and scorers rely on numbers bureaucracy trust and human labor to make sound judgments about the value of baseball players Tracing baseball s story from the nineteenth century to today Phillips explains that the sport was one of the earliest fields to introduce numerical analysis and new methods of data collection were supposed to enable teams to replace scouting with scoring But that s not how things turned out From the invention of official scorers and Statcast to the creation of the Major League Scouting Bureau Scouting and Scoring reveals the inextricable connections between human expertise and data science and offers an entirely fresh understanding of baseball The Baseball Bibliography Myron J. Smith,2006 With over 57 000 entries this two volume set is the most comprehensive non electronic non database print bibliography on any American sport Represented here are books and monographs scholarly papers government documents doctoral dissertations masters theses poetry and fiction novels pro team yearbooks college and professional All Star Game and World Series programs commercially produced yearbooks and periodical and journal articles Provided by publisher Baseball Amanda Bennett,1996 Enjoy the story of baseball and all that it holds in the way of a learning adventure What better way to learn about forces and momentum than when studying why a curve ball curves or learning about vibration by finding the sweet spot of a baseball bat This unit study has been developed to provide a complete look at the sport using a cross curriculum approach Official Baseball Annual National Baseball Congress of America,1968 Proceedings & Newsletter North American Society for Sport History,1985
