The Orpheus Sedan:

The Orpheus Sedan Belle Randall, 1980      The Autos Sacramentales of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Alice Brooke, 2018 Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz 1651-1695 was the most significant literary figure of the colonial period in Spanish America. The autos sacramentales or Eucharistic plays are some of her least studied and most perplexing works. While one of them, El divino Narciso, has received substantial scholarly attention, the other two, El cetro de José and El mártir del Sacramento San Hermenegildo, have been critically neglected in Sor Juana studies. This study presents a full-length analysis of all three plays along with their prologues or the introductory pieces alongside which they were intended to be performed. Furthermore, the study seeks to place these works in their philosophical and cultural context by exploring their engagement both with orthodox Catholic sacramental theology and the emergence of empiricism and the New Philosophy across the Hispanic world. The three sections of this book each present significant new readings of the three plays. The study of El divino Narciso employs a previously little-known source to illuminate its Christological readings as well as Sor Juana's engagement with notions of wit and conceptism. The analysis of El cetro de José explores her presentation of different approaches to perception to emphasise the importance of both the material and the transcendent to a holistic understanding of the Sacraments. The final section on San Hermenegildo explores the influence on the play of the Christianised Stoicism of Justus Lipsius and demonstrates how Sor Juana used the work to attempt her most ambitious reconciliation of an empirical approach to natural philosophy and the material world with a Neostoic approach to Christian morality and orthodox Catholic sacramental theology.

Discursive "Renovatio" in Lope de Vega and Calderón Joachim Küpper, 2017-11-07 This volume presents a new approach to Spanish Baroque drama inspired by Foucauldian discourse archaeology whose rare fusion of meticulous philology and ambitious theory will be exciting and fruitful both for specialists of Spanish literature and for anyone invested in the history of European thought. Detailed readings are dedicated to some of the most prominent plays by Lope de Vega and Calderón de la Barca: both autos sacramentales El viaje del alma, El divino Orfeo, La lepra de Constantino and comedias El castigo sin venganza, El príncipe constante, El mágico de su honra. The archaeological perspective cast on the plays implies an integration of their discourse historical foils from pagan antiquity through the Middle Ages and the Renaissance as well as a discussion of related discourses: mainly theological, philosophical and historiographical. A separate excursus suggests a reconsideration of the common manner in which the discursive relation between the Middle Ages, the Renaissance, Mannerism and the Baroque is conceptualized.

The Mythological Autos of Calderón de la Barca Geoffrey Michael Voght, 1974      The Play of Allegory in the Autos Sacramentales of Pedro Calderón de la Barca Barbara Ellen Kurtz, 1991 Spanish dramatist Pedro Calderón de la Barca 1600-1781 was one of the most brilliant although largely unheralded writers in the history of European allegory. This work examines the playwright's allegorical drama as well as his theory of allegory.

Auto-biography of Goethe Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 1872      Job, Boethius, and Epic Truth Ann W. Astell, 2019-03-15

Calling into question the common assumption that the Middle Ages produced no secondary epics Ann W Astell here revises a key chapter in literary history She examines the connections between the Book of Job and Boethius's Consolation of Philosophy texts closely associated with each other in the minds of medieval readers and writers and demonstrates that these two works served as a conduit for the tradition of heroic poetry from antiquity through the Middle Ages and into the Renaissance As she traces the complex influences of classical and biblical texts on vernacular literature Astell offers provocative readings of works by Dante Chaucer Spenser Malory Milton and many others Astell looks at the relationship between the historical reception of the epic and successive imitative forms showing how Boethius's Consolation and Johan biblical commentaries echo the allegorical treatment of epic truth in the poems of Homer and Virgil and how in turn many works classified as romance take Job and Boethius as their models She considers the influences of Job and Boethius on hagiographic romance as exemplified by the stories of Eustace Custance and Griselda on the amatory romances of Abelard and Heloise Dante and Beatrice and Troilus and Criseyde and on the chivalric romances of Martin of Tours Galahad Lancelot and Redcrosse Finally she explores an encyclopedic array of interpretations of Job and Boethius in Milton's Paradise Lost Paradise Regained and Samson Agonistes

Handleiding tot de geschiedenis der letterkunde vooral van den nieuweren tijd W. Doorenbos, 1882      The Calderonian Stage Manuel Delgado, 1997 This collection of essays invites the contemporary reader to consider the works of Pedro Calderon de la Barca 1600-81 who became the most important and influential dramatist of the second period of the Spanish Golden Age just as Lope de Vega 1562-1635 was for the preceding generation A follower of Lope in his youth Calderon as a mature playwright developed a drama all of his own a drama that was highly conceptual tightly knit symbolic and in many cases spectacular Calderon's artistry in verbal and visual symbolism made the performance of his works a feast for both the senses and the intellect Until now many of Calderon's critics have focused their attention on how the poetic devices particularly metaphors and symbols appearing in his plays represent his philosophy or his ideas But as some scholars of Spanish Golden Age drama have argued the study of Calderon's theater must take into account not only the literary text but also the physical conditions of the stage the elements used in the representation decor costumes lighting music and the house dynamics at each performance In other words each play must be considered as a composition of the soul and body of poetry and spectacle in which both elements support complement and explain one another in performance This is the task that has been undertaken by the contributors to this volume By focusing on the relationship between text and performance they have highlighted several areas that are often overlooked in traditional text-based approaches From different perspectives they show how Calderon gives concrete shape to the concepts and tales from the Bible theology mythology the Corpus Hermeticum emblematic literature philosophy and realities of civic and domestic origin
