

The other Livingstone

For the first time the story can be told of four men who played a crucial part in David Livingstone's discoveries - a part he attempted to suppress.
This is a story of 19th century intrigue and rivalry
which took place behind the scenes in Africa,
away from the rapturous public gaze of the Victorians.

The Other Livingstone:

Livingstone's Hospital Marion A. Currie, 2011-09-29 Scottish medical missionary explorer David Livingstone wandered off course in his search for the source of the Nile and died from blood loss in May 1873 in a remote corner of north eastern Zambia His heart was buried under a tree in Chief Chitambo's village and his mummified body was carried back to the coast by some of his loyal companions His remains were returned by sea to Britain and he was given a hero's burial at Westminster Abbey on the 18th April 1874 Chitambo Hospital was built in memory of Livingstone over a hundred years ago by his nephew Malcolm Moffat Two of Livingstone's grand children worked there and his youngest daughter Anna made a pilgrimage to the spot in 1915 Generations of nurses and doctors followed in Livingstone's footsteps and gave of themselves to keep the hospital running Livingstone's Hospital sets out to tell the story of a vibrant and living memorial to one of history's poorly understood heroes of the missionary family Isobel Reid, 2024-06-03 Isobel Reid offers a concise account of the origins establishment and some internal dynamics of the Livingstonia Mission in particular those impacting missionary families as seen through the eyes of a young missionary couple at its Bandawe station This study not only demonstrates a general awareness of the role and initiative of the people of Northern Malawi among whom and with whom the Scottish missionaries lived and worked but also of the specific importance of interpersonal relationships between Scottish and Malawian women as in the case of Marie Martin and her Tonga women friends Race as the primary dividing line was thus subverted by mutual gender awareness From 1978 Isobel Reid a qualified nurse midwife with her doctor husband and young family lived for 18 months on

Ekwendeni CCPA Mission Station before transferring to Mzuzu where Dr Reid was in charge of St John's Roman Catholic Mission Hospital for four further years A consequent academic interest in mission history resulted in an MTh Edinburgh 1999 which provided the basis for this book

The New Book of Christian Martyrs Johnnie Moore, Jerry Pattengale, 2023-03

An inspiring keepsake that honors the heroic sacrifice of today's martyrs for the Christian faith and shows how their actions mirror the courage of a long line of brave Christians In the twenty first century we are witnessing an escalation in Christian persecution like we have rarely seen since the first century Many people don't realize that today thousands of Christians are dying cruel deaths throughout much of the world There were in fact more martyrs in the last century than in all the previous Christian centuries combined Millions have given their lives since the fall of Rome and today tens of thousands die annually for their faith in Jesus Most of these modern stories are not legendary in fact many are unknown The New Book of Christian Martyrs commemorates those modern day heroes In this update to Foxe's Book of Martyrs Johnnie Moore and Jerry Pattengale highlight key martyrs of past centuries and feature stories of contemporary martyrs around the world Through tears Johnnie and Jerry offer this compendium of heroes from the first century to the twenty first century from Europe to Africa and from Asia to the Americas to inspire Christians around the globe Today we live in solidarity with them and in the next life we will rejoice by their side We will never forget their sacrifice for the truth Themelios, Volume 49, Issue 2
