The Course of Empire Bernard De Voto, Bernard Augustine De Voto, 1998 Tracing North American Exploration from Balboa to Lewis and Clark, Devoto tells in a classic fashion how the drama of discovery defined the American nation. The Course of Empire is the third volume in historian Bernard Devoto's monumental trilogy of the West. The Empire of the Eye Angela L. Miller, 1993 The great nineteenth-century American landscape paintings, panoramic visions of natural design, have long been interpreted as expressions of the very spirit of national expansionism. Surveying American landscape art in light of its political, institutional, and cultural history from the 1820s through the post-Civil War era, Angela Miller profoundly alters our understanding of the genre. In this richly illustrated volume, she shows how landscape paintings, beyond reflecting the beauty and the power of nature, served as a medium through which disquieting questions concerning the future of the new republic could be raised symbolically. Making use of a wide array of sources, including diaries, letters, travel writings, criticism, and essays, Miller illuminates the meaning of landscape images for nineteenth-century viewers. She reassesses the ideological influence of Thomas Cole on successive generations of artists and reinterprets the new types of national landscape that emerged among New York based painters beginning in the 1840s Miller offers fresh analyses of such key works as Cole's View from Mount Holyoke Northampton Massachusetts The Oxbow 1836 Asher B Durand's Progress 1853 John Frederick Kensett's White Mountains Mount Washington 1851 Frederic Church's New England Scenery 1851 and Sanford Gifford's Kauterskill Clove 1862 The cultural identity expressed by nationalist landscape painting she asserts was marked by competing commitments to region and nation by uncertainties over gender relations and by the paradox of a nature simultaneously invested with spiritual values and used to underwrite an ideology of progress Enhanced by eight color plates and sixty four black and white reproductions The Empire of the Eye represents a major contribution to American cultural studies and the history of landscape art BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Atlantic Monthly ,1906 Journal of the American Water Works Association American Water Works Association,1925 Vols for 2012 contain only executive summaries of articles Guide to Reprints ,2008 Bulletin ... of Books Added to the Public Library of Detroit, Mich Detroit Public Library,1907 The Encyclopaedia Britannica James Louis Garvin, Franklin Henry Hooper, Warren E.
