The Of John Brunner:

The John Brunner Collection Volume One John Brunner, 2018-05-15 Three visionary sci fi novels from the Hugo Award winning author whose dystopian prescience made him one of the most important SF Site British science fiction master John Brunner remains one of the most influential and respected authors of all time and now many of his classic works are being made available to new generations of readers The very definition of timeless Brunner s skillful and often frightening political and social commentary takes its place alongside the most iconic works of Arthur C Clarke Aldous Huxley Margaret Atwood and George Orwell The Sheep Look Up In a near future of poison air and soaring health hazards environmentalist Austin Train is on the run from the insurrectionists who want him to lead and the government that wants him dead in this Nebula Award Finalist An arresting diary of what s in store for us The Washington Post The Crucible of Time On a planet hurtling precariously through space an alien civilization struggles for generations against ice ages and catastrophic meteors while scientists slowly develop the technology that will ultimately save them Impeccably detailed and beautifully thought out even to the fascinating alien personalities speech patterns and thoughts Brunner in top form Kirkus Reviews starred review The Jagged Orbit In this Nebula Award Finalist a journalist tries to expose the corrupt director of a mental hospital in a dystopian future where drug abuse organized crime and the inhumane treatment of anyone deemed insane have all but destroyed social order One of his most trenchant dystopias yet it is as irresistible as it is biting SFReviews net John Brunner John Brunner, 2014-07-17 THE SHEEP LOOK UP Environmentalist Austin Train is on the run The Trainites environmental activists and sometime terrorists want him to lead their movement The government wants him in jail or preferably executed The media wants a circus Everyone has a plan for Train but Train has a plan of his own THE SHOCKWAVE RIDER Nickie Haflinger had lived a score of lifetimes but technically he didn t exist He was a fugitive from Tarnover the high powered government think tank that had educated him First he had broken his identity code then he escaped THE TRAVELLER IN BLACK This is a collection of stories of the Traveller in Black It is set in a world where chaos rules One man the man with many names but one nature is charged with creating order out of the warring forces of nature

John Brunner Jad Smith, 2013-01-30 Under his own name and numerous pseudonyms John Brunner 1934 1995 was one of the most prolific and influential science fiction authors of the late twentieth century During his exemplary career the British author wrote with a stamina matched by only a few other great science fiction writers and with a literary quality of even fewer importing modernist techniques into his novels and stories and probing every major theme of his generation robotics racism drugs space exploration technological warfare and ecology In this first intensive review of Brunner s life and works Jad Smith carefully demonstrates how Brunner s much neglected early fiction laid the foundation for his classic Stand on Zanzibar and other major works such as The Jagged Orbit The Sheep Look Up and The Shockwave Rider Making extensive use of Brunner s letters columns speeches and interviews published in fanzines Smith approaches Brunner in the context of markets and trends that affected many writers of the time including Brunner's uneasy association with the New Wave of science fiction in the 1960s and 70s. This landmark study shows how Brunner's attempts to cross-fertilize the American pulp tradition with British scientific romance complicated the distinctions between genre and mainstream fiction and between hard and soft science fiction and helped carve out space for emerging modes such as cyberpunk, slipstream and biopunk.

The John Brunner Collection Volume Two John Brunner, 2018-06-19 Three fascinating sci-fi novels from the limitless imagination of the Hugo Award-winning author of the dystopian classic Stand on Zanzibar. British novelist John Brunner remains one of the most important science fiction authors who held a mirror up to reflect our foibles. SF Site Brunner's skillful and often frightening political and social commentary takes its place alongside the most iconic works of Arthur C. Clarke, Aldous Huxley, Margaret Atwood and George Orwell. The Wrong End of Time In a near future where a paranoid America has sealed itself off from the rest of the world by a vast and complicated defense system, a young Russian scientist infiltrates all defenses to convey terrifying news. At the outer reaches of the solar system near Pluto, a superior form of intelligent life possesses technology that makes it immune to attack and strong enough to easily destroy planet Earth. The Ladder in the Sky A starving youth trapped in poverty with no hope of escape is taken prisoner and offered up in an actual deal with the devil: servitude for a year and a day in return for helping a resistance group free their imprisoned planetary leader. When he returns to consciousness, he is told that the devil has taken up residence inside him. At first he thinks nothing has changed and he can take advantage of the situation, but some upsetting surprises are in store for him. The Productions of Time Murray Douglas has beaten his alcoholism but he needs an acting job and can't be selective. He ends up with an improv group at an isolated country estate where every move is being recorded by unfamiliar technology and each player's weakness is constantly prodded and encouraged. Just what is this show? And who is it for? John Brunner Double John Brunner, 1981-12-01 The Happening Worlds of John Brunner Joe De Bolt, 1975 Trip John Brunner, 1966 The Tides of Time John Brunner, 2012-12-21 First there was the end. After weeks of running from pursuers, Gene and Stacy finally found refuge on an isolated island. But around them, the island changed and so did they. Each time they awoke from sleep, they lived a different life in a different time. And the farther back they went, the more they lost their anchor to their own world. When at last they were found, the people they had become no longer recognised their pursuers. And that was the beginning. The Best of John Brunner John Brunner, Joe W. Haldeman, 1988 A collection of 15 stories by one of contemporary science fiction's finest writers. Catch a Falling Star John Brunner, 2011-09-29 A hundred thousand years from now, it was discovered that a star was approaching the world on a collision course. Its discoverer, Creohan, figured there might be time to save the world if he could arouse everyone to the danger. But the Earth had become a strange and kaleidoscopic place in that distant era. Too many empires had risen and fallen, too many cultures had spread their shattered fragments across a planet whose very maps had long since been forgotten. People were too busy with their own private dreams to pay attention to one more new alarm.

The story Creohan s effort to Catch a Falling Star is one of John Brunner s most colourful science fiction concepts John Brunner ,1981 The Infinitive of Go John Brunner,2012-07-16 CODE NAME POSTER The first practical matter transmitter was a success or so everyone thought In spite of paranoid security restrictions Justin Williams and Cinnamon Wright co inventors of the device counted on it to revolutionise civilisation and gain them an honoured place in history But the first long distance field test with a human being a diplomatic courier carrying a vital message somehow misfired when the courier killed himself on arrival at his destination To prove his faith in his invention and to escape charges of sabotage Justin had himself posted thousands of miles He came through unchanged It was the world that was somehow different

The Stone That Never Came Down John Brunner,2014-04-01 A world on the brink of war Credible characters suspenseful plotting and Brunner s broad vision make this humane novel a winner Kirkus Reviews The world is awash in civic decay military coups and revolutionary governments bands of believers Godheads roaming the streets and turning plastic crosses into assault weapons One scientist has discovered a new kind of viral drug VC which has the power to drastically alter the human mind It could save civilization but at what cost And who has the right to make a decision about whether or not to use it Brunner at his thought provoking action packed best One of the most important science fiction authors Brunner held a mirror up to reflect our foibles because he wanted to save us from ourselves SF Site The Squares of the City

John Brunner,2014-04-01 Hugo Award Finalist Story plotting holding much in common with chess An exciting political thriller in the vein of Graham Greene Speculiction In The Squares of the City Brunner takes the moves of a classic championship chess game and uses them as the structure to build a novel about a revolution in a South American country obsessed with chess and dominated by a dictator who sees people as pawns in his game of power and survival Intriguing premise dramatic story future setting great entertainment One of the most important science fiction authors Brunner held a mirror up to reflect our foibles because he wanted to save us from ourselves SF Site Threshold of Eternity John

Brunner,2015-12-17 Because of a twist in the structure of Time three strangers were brought unexpectedly together Red Hawkins of California Chantal Vareze of London and a man from the 41st Century Their meeting seemed an impossible prank of a universe gone mad but it turned out to be quite otherwise For it seemed there was a war going on throughout space and time A war fought by men of different epochs on planets of different cultures but for a cause that all could acknowledge the very continued existence of creation itself And the coming together of these three very unlikely people a modern man a lovely girl and a futurian soldier was to prove the master stroke of a super science strategy that had already brought humanity to the THRESHOLD OF ETERNITY Web of Everywhere John Brunner,2011-09-29 He was The Visitor in a society revolutionised and troubled by a transportation device that let you walk through a door and be anywhere in the world instantly He was The Visitor at a time when unauthorised travel had caused the violent deaths of countless millions and the survivors were quaking in fear He was The Visitor in a world where the invasion of privacy was the ultimate crime and where his obsession with visiting places where he had no right to be led him on a perilous adventure towards his own destruction

I Speak for Earth John Brunner, 2011-09-29 One citizen of your planet shall go to the capital of the Federation of Worlds He shall live there for thirty days If your representative can survive and demonstrate his ability to exist in a civilized society with creatures whose outward appearance and manner of thinking differ from his own you will pass the test You will be permitted to send your starships to other planets of the galaxy If he fails the test if prejudice fear intolerance or stupidity trip him up then you world will be sealed off from the stars for ever This was the ultimatum from space The task before the world then was who shall go What man or woman could be found to take this frightening test for the whole of humanity and be certain not to fail First published 1961 The Crucible of Time John Brunner, 2014-04-01 An alien race struggles to survive on an uninhabitable planet in this impeccably detailed and beautifully thought out novel from a Hugo Award winner Kirkus Reviews starred review On a planet besieged with cosmic dust where meteors of all sizes frequently hit wiping out entire civilizations a strange alien species struggles against extinction over the course of millennia As their star grows hotter melting ice caps and causing more earthquakes and volcanic eruptions higher levels of radiation lead to higher rates of mutation Plants that had been edible become poisonous or die off altogether Watching their dire situation only get worse the planet's scientists finally acknowledge that to survive long term the inhabitants will have to abandon their fraught home world and become a space faring species In a story that spans millennia Hugo Award winning author and British science fiction master John Brunner introduces us to an alien race that takes control of their own evolution and builds the technological society that will be their way into space One of the most important science fiction authors Brunner held a mirror up to reflect our foibles because he wanted to save us from ourselves SF Site The Brink John Brunner, 2015-04-30 Ed Carter a New York reporter on his way to his home town in Omaha for a short vacation saw the missile in the last moments in its journey back to earth A sweller on the brink like all of us he had no doubt about what it was Oh God he thought this is it The blast of the impact flung him some distance and when he regained consciousness his first reaction was one of surprised to find himself still alive and not it seemed even badly hurt Presumably the missile had been directed at the big Air Force base nearby and should have destroyed everything and everyone within a radius of miles Could it have failed to explode Carter sees the remains of part of the missile in an adjacent field and hobbles over to it A minute or two later several Air Force officers arrive They examine the remains and find the burned up body of a pilot In other worlds the missile was not Russia's first shot in the Third World War but a failure to launch a man into space But Carter knows that the Distant Early Warning line will have reported the missile that the senior Air Force officers in accordance with plan will have taken to the air in the country's interest their lives must of course be preserved if possible that by now the retaliatory American bombers will have passed the point of no recall and that the Third World War has begun Not so Colonel Ben Goldwater tells him I called the bombers back Goldwater the man who had been left in command has saved the world for at least a little longer So he becomes a world hero Not a bit of it On the contrary a nightmare looms ahead both for him and for Ed Carter and the reader watches it all with growing fury Galactic Storm John Brunner, 2020-12-31 GALACTIC STORM tells the tale of a young genius who uses a supercomputer to discover an alarming trend of global warming that will see half the world's ice caps melted within fifty years This leads to an expedition to the South Pole to investigate the problem and from there to the discovery of a sinister plot of extraterrestrial origin
