

The background of the book cover is a dark, textured surface with a complex pattern of light-colored, radiating lines. These lines originate from a central point near the top and fan outwards, creating a sense of depth and movement. The lines vary in thickness and brightness, some appearing as sharp streaks while others are more diffuse. The overall effect is reminiscent of a starburst or a dynamic, abstract architectural structure.

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Periodical Essay in Modernity R. Eric Tippin, 2025-03-31 This book takes seriously the late Victorian periodical essay treating it with the same formal care that another study might give to Thomas Hardy's poetry or Henry James's prose It also attends to the essay's periodical context advertisements news serial publication material transience and burying ubiquity It challenges the distinction between serious literature and mere articles that appear in dailies weeklies and monthlies And then it argues that to understand the periodical essay between 1880 and 1920 is to understand the transitions of that period more clearly from belief to doubt from country to city from thick time to clock time The periodical essay is implicated in all these transitions In making this argument this book makes special reference to three authors Oscar Wilde G K Chesterton and Virginia Woolf All three command very different audiences and this book suggests an association between the three as periodical essayists The Made-Up Self Carl H. Klaus, 2010-04-15 In this first book length study of the personal essay Carl Klaus unpacks the writer's made up self and the manifold ways in which a wide range of essayists and essay have brought it to life By reconceiving the most fundamental aspect of the personal essay the I of the essayist Klaus demonstrates that this seemingly uncontrived form of writing is inherently problematic not wilfully devious but bordering upon the world of fiction He develops this key idea by explaining how structure style and voice determine the nature of a persona and our perception of it in the works of such essayists as Michel de Montaigne Charles Lamb E B White Virginia Woolf James Baldwin George Orwell Joan Didion Richard Rodriguez Alice Walker and Leslie Marmon Silko Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Cambridge History of the American Essay Christy Wampole, Jason Childs, 2023-12-14 From the country's beginning essayists in the United States have used their prose to articulate the many ways their individuality has been shaped by the politics social life and culture of this place The Cambridge History of the American Essay offers the fullest account to date of this diverse and complex history From Puritan writings to essays by Indigenous authors from Transcendentalist and Pragmatist texts to Harlem Renaissance essays from New Criticism to New Journalism The story of the American essay is told here beginning in the early eighteenth century and ending with the vibrant heterogeneous scene of contemporary essayistic writing The essay in the US has taken many forms nature writing travel writing the genteel tradition literary criticism hybrid genres such as the essay film and the
