The Orientalists Lynne Thornton,1994 Presents the numerous painters who succumbed to the charms of the Orient

Orientalism's Interlocutors Jill Beaulieu,Mary Roberts,2002-12-06 A collection of essays that develop ways of doing postcolonial studies in art history      The Orsay murder club Christos Markogiannakis,2018-10-25 Welcome to the Orsay a former train station turned into a sumptuous museum It is from here that Christos Markogiannakis invites you to embark on a very special journey a journey through history and mythology crossing paths with mass murderers stalkers cursed families cannibals and serial killers Murder is present on every floor in every corner exposing itself through numerous masterpieces as a gruesome form of art Applying the principles of criminology and art history The Orsay Murder Club investigates and interprets a choice of some 30 works of art through a criminartistic lens Created by prestigious artists such as Moreau C zanne Carpeaux and Rodin they all have a thing in common they represent murder Each work will be treated as a crime scene and will lead to a fascinating investigation inspired by the principles of legal and forensic experts Into what category does the murder fall What are the factual and historical issues Who are the victims What portrait can be drawn of the perpetrator s What is their profile their background their motive Reaching our final destination the truth will depend on the often unexpected answers found for these questions      Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2

Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair,C. H. Bleaney,Pablo García Suárez,2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies      Going Abroad Christine Geoffroy,Richard Sibley,2009-10-02 Going Abroad is a book not only for scholars academics and students who are interested in different approaches to mobility but also for non specialists who wish to explore and understand what lies behind the various forms of travel tourism and migration that are central to today s and no doubt tomorrow s globalized world If you are tempted by emigration enjoy being a tourist or just love the adventure of travel real or imaginary you can embark on a journey of discovery through time and across the continents to explore and reflect on diverse visions of mobility The practical problems and the differing states of mind experienced by past and present emigrants to France Spain Morocco Capri Latin America Canada and Australia the impact of immigration on the host communities and the reactions of turn of the century French immigrants to Britain offer contrasting and complementary perspectives Along with the real and symbolic meanings of the apparently mundane act of crossing the Channel stranger forms of travel are also explored Filipino sailors who are neither at home nor abroad backpacking across four continents the real and the fantasized exotic in nineteenth century orientalist art and the sanitized utopias of today s theme parks Within an inter disciplinary and a cross cultural framework the book explores the terminology concepts and methodology of a subject which has become the focus of curricula in many academic courses      The Orientalists Lynne Thornton,1983      Orientalism John MacKenzie,1995-07-15 The Orientalism debate inspired by the work of Edward Said has been a major source of cross disciplinary controversy in recent years John MacKenzie offers a comprehensive re evaluation of this vast literature of Orientalism and brings to the subject highly original historical perspectives This study provides the first major discussion of Orientalism by a historian of imperialism Setting the analysis within the context of conflicting scholarly interpretations John MacKenzie then carries the discussion into wholly new areas testing the notion that the western arts received genuine inspiration from the East by examining the visual arts architecture design music and theatre      The Keys to French Opera in the Nineteenth Century Hervé Lacombe,2001-01-12 A lively history of French opera in its cultural and historical context by one of France s leading musicologists      The Orientalists Painter - Travellers 1828 - 1908 Lynne Thornton,1983      Visions of the Ottoman Empire National Galleries of Scotland. Trustees,Scottish National Portrait Gallery,1994      Der Orientmaler Gustav Bauernfeind, 1848-1904 Alex Carmel,Gustav Bauernfeind,1990      Middle East Review ,1985      AB Bookman's Weekly ,1997      Esclave, Nègre, Noir James Smalls,1991      Materials on Asia, accession list and review ,1992      Painting the Holy Land in the Nineteenth Century Yehoshua Ben-Arieh,1997 The Holy Land has captures the attention of mankind since the very beginning of human civilization and even more so from the early days of Christianity Nineteenth century Palestine fired the imagination of the Western world Improved travel facilities and greater political stability in the Near East brought ever increasing numbers of visitors to the Holy Land affecting the quantity and quality of the pictorial depictions of its sites and scenes Like other countries in the exotic Muslim East Palestine also became a point of focal interest for painters of the Orientalist school The author has assembled a fascinating collection of unique works of art executed in the diverse styles of nineteenth century painting Around these reproductions many of them in colour he reconstructs the story of the artists who produced them who came from many European countries and from North America The result is an important and unique perspective on the sites persons events and customs of the Holy Land in that century      Cultural Contacts in Building a Universal Civilisation Research Centre for Islamic History, Art, and Culture,2005      The Wallace Collection: British, German, Italian, Spanish Wallace Collection (London, England),John Ingamells,1985      The Wallace Collection Wallace Collection (London, England),John Ingamells,1985 Describes in detail 151 paintings and 60 drawings of British German Italian and Spanish schools      Homes and Homelessness in the Victorian Imagination Murray Baumgarten,Hillel Matthew Daleski,1998 The essays in this volume deal centrally with Dickens s images of homelessness but also with those of other Victorians also Disraeli Mrs Gaskell Israel Zangwill John Ruskin and Henry James The issues addressed by these Victorians are the same as those we face today
