Divekar, 2012-12-06 Circuit simulation is widely used for the design of circuits both discrete and integrated Device modeling is an important aspect of circuit simulation since it is the link between the physical device and the simulated device Currently available circuit simulation programs provide a variety of built in models Many circuit designers use these built in models whereas some incorporate new models in the circuit simulation programs Understanding device modeling with particular emphasis on circuit simulation will be helpful in utilizing the built in models more efficiently as well as in implementing new models SPICE is used as a vehicle since it is the most widely used circuit simulation program However some issues are addressed which are not directly applicable to SPICE but are applicable to circuit simulation in general These discussions are useful for modifying SPICE and for understanding other simulation programs The generic version 2G 6 is used as a reference for SPICE although numerous different versions exist with different modifications This book describes field effect transistor models commonly used in a variety of circuit simulation programs Understanding of the basic device physics and some familiarity with device modeling is assumed Derivation of the model equations is not included SPICE is a circuit simulation program available from EECS Industrial Support Office 461 Cory Hall University of California Berkeley CA 94720

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him.
