A Long Journey Back Chris R. Pownall, 2011-09-01 This is the real life account of a remarkable young man who suffered a near fatal head injury and describes his astounding battle to regain his life Rob Pownall was just eighteen when he had an unfortunate accident which was to dramatically change his life Following life saving surgery he lay in a coma for several days before waking up only to find himself completely paralysed and unable to speak The story is told by Rob s father Chris R Pownall author of Funny How Things Work Out and Onwards and Upwards This book is intended to be an inspiration to others who might find themselves in a similar situation and need something to give them hope and encourage them to strive for the best possible recovery Rob received the finest medical care under the British NHS National Health Service and demonstrated great determination and courage he worked hard every single day as part of his rehabilitation maintained a positive mental attitude which greatly helped him through his long journey back from what first appeared to be a hopeless and impossible situation Book reviews online PublishedBestsellers website

Imdeduya Gunter Senft, 2017-07-12 This volume presents five variants of the Imdeduya myth two versions of the actual myth a short story a song and John Kasaipwalova s English poem Sail the Midnight Sun This poem draws heavily on the Trobriand myth which introduces the protagonists Imdeduya and Yolina and reports on Yolina s intention to marry the girl so famous for her beauty on his long journey to Imdeduya s village and on their tragic love story The texts are compared with each other with a final focus on the clash between orality and scripturality Contrary to Kasaipwalova s fixed poetic text the oral Imdeduya versions reveal the variability characteristic for oral tradition This variability opens up questions about traditional stability and destabilization of oral literature especially questions about the changing role of myth and magic in the Trobriand Islanders society which gets more and more integrated into the by now literal nation of Papua New Guinea

The Long Journey Back Linda Penninga, 2007-12-11 The Civil War is over and the South is reeling from the loss and devastation of the war Colleen and Steven must now travel from Virginia to their home in Georgia The road is fraught with hardship and peril from bear attacks and cave dwellers to Unionists out for revenge Even after reaching home their journey does not end They are faced with the struggles of rebuilding their home dealing with devastating losses finding their place in a new South and mending what the war has torn apart It is a time of reconstruction Black Codes and the emergence of the Ku Klux Klan This is the story of the South and its people rising from the ashes of war the journey back from grief death and adversity
