The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures Archie L. Dick, 2012-01-01 The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures shows how the common practice of reading can illuminate the social and political history of a culture This ground breaking study reveals resistance strategies in the reading and writing practices of South Africans strategies that have been hidden until now for political reasons relating to the country s liberation struggles By looking to records from a slave lodge women s associations army education units universities courts libraries prison departments and political groups Archie Dick exposes the key works of fiction and non fiction magazines and newspapers that were read and discussed by political activists and prisoners Uncovering the book and library schemes that elites used to regulate reading Dick exposes incidences of intellectual fraud book theft censorship and book burning Through this innovative methodology Dick aptly shows how South African readers used reading and books to resist unjust regimes and build community across South Africa s class and racial barriers

The Horror of Police Travis Linnemann, 2022-09-06 Unmasks the horrors of a social order reproduced and maintained by the violence of police Year after year the crisis churns graft and corruption violence and murder riot cops and armored vehicles claim city streets Despite promises of reform police operate with impunity unaccountable to law In The Horror of Police Travis Linnemann asks why with this open record of violence and corruption policing remains for so many the best perhaps only means of security in an insecure world Drawing on the language and texts of horror fiction Linnemann recasts the police not only as self proclaimed monster fighters but as monsters themselves a terrifying force set loose in the world Purposefully misreading a collection of everyday police stories TV cop dramas detective fiction news media accounts the direct words of police not as morality tales of innocence avenged and order restored but as horror Linnemann reveals the monstrous violence at the heart of liberal social order The Horror of Police shows that police violence is not a deviation but rather a deliberate and permanent fixture of U S law and order Only when viewed through the refracted motif of horror stories Linnemann argues can we begin to reckon the limits of police and imagine a world without them British History and Papal Claims, from the Norman Conquest to the Present Day James Paton,1893 The History of Civilization Guizot (M., François),1886

Parliamentary Debates. House of Representatives New Zealand. Parliament,1971 Humor and Horror Lena Straßburger,2022-03-07 Despite their opposite emotional effects humor and horror are highly similar phenomena They both can be traced back to the detection resolution and emotional elaboration of incongruities understood as semantic violations through unexpected combinations of oppositional information However theoretical and experimental comparisons between humor and resolvable incongruities that elicit other emotions than exhilaration have been lacking so far To gain more insights into the linguistic differences between humor and horror and the cognitive real time processing of both a main concern of this book is to discuss the transferability of linguistic humor theories to a systematic horror investigation and directly compare self paced reading times SPR facial actions FACS and event related brain potentials ERP of normed minimal quadruplets with frightening and humorous incongruities as well as in coherent stimuli The results suggest that humor and horror share cognitive resources to detect and resolve incongruities To better distinguish humor from neighboring phenomena this book refines current humor theories by incorporating humor and horror in a cognitive incongruity processing model The History of France from the Earliest Times to 1848 François Guizot,Madame de Witt,1884 The History of Napoleon the First: 1800-1806 Pierre Lanfrey,1886 The History of Napoleon the First: 1805-1808 Pierre Lanfrey,1886 Miscellany of the Scottish History Society Scottish History Society,1893 History of the People of Israel Ernest Renan,1894 History of the First and Second Missouri Confederate Brigades Robert S.
