Histrionic Hamlet

Piotr Sadowski,2024-09-18 According to psychological research on acting the histrionic personality consists of a compulsive tendency to play act exaggerate emotions succumb to illusions seek attention through speech body language and costume to be seductive and impulsive An original intervention in the critical history of Shakespeare's most famous play Histrionic Hamlet argues that the Danish Prince is a stage representation of just such a personality a born actor and a drama queen rather than a politician incongruously thrown in the middle of ruthless high stakes power struggle requiring pragmatic rather than theatrical skills Uniquely among other English revenge tragedies in Hamlet a histrionic protagonist striking a series of gratuitous baffling self indulgent and counterproductive poses is called upon to carry out a challenging and brutal political task which he spectacularly and tragically mismanages Unable to perform on a theatrical stage as a professional actor the Clown Prince bitterly play acts anyway turning all situations into opportunities of pretend play rather than effective political action In consequence he wastes tactical advantages over his enemies endangers himself and jeopardizes his revenge plan if ever there was one Histrionic Hamlet should be of interest to students of Shakespeare theater practitioners and anyone interested in human dysfunctional and maladaptive behavior There Is Nothing Like a Thane! Clive Francis,2013-07-16

There is Nothing Like a Thane is a follow up to Clive Francis s highly successful There is Nothing Like a Dane The Lighter Side of Hamlet Thane is a hilarious compilation of unintentional funny moments from a variety of productions of Macbeth interwoven with Francis s witty caricatures It also delves into the many superstitions which have dogged the play since 1603 making it possibly the unluckiest play ever written We hear of how some actors fared better than others when playing the role of the Thane If Ralph Richardson s was the worst Peter O Toole s was certainly the funniest Olivier was deemed the greatest John Gielgud the most successful and Charles Laughton the silliest We also hear from Orson Welles David Garrick Charles Dickens and William McGonagall who refused to die for fear of upsetting his audience Not to be outdone we shall hear from a number of Lady Macbeths as well including Sybil Thorndike who d pray every night in the wings so as to ward away evil spirits This is a book for all those who love the theater especially the Bard Theatre History Studies ,2002 sourced by numerous interviews Simon Cadell The Authorised Biography tells for the first time the story of a fourth generation actor who oozed charm and had a zest for a life that was cut tragically short at the peak of his powers     The Playbill ,1981     Film Review ,1994     The Spectator ,1888     Schwann Long Playing Record Catalog ,1969
