 Golden Hours ,1879 Light Sister, Dark Sister Lee Walmsley,1994 A stunning novel about two sisters bonded to each other in the net of a family and how each of them finds a way to break free Gray always believed her sister Bobbie was the brilliant one their father Max confirmed it Bobbie was the star the one whose life was shot through with light If Bobbie was the light sister Gray saw herself as the dark one invisible depressed in Bobbie s shadow Yet Gray is the first to understand that Bobbie's increasingly erratic behavior may be not superior precocity but rather the early signs of mania. Diagnosed as possibly schizophrenic, Bobbie embarks on bizarre and dangerous adventures while Gray becomes determined to move away from the family and create a new life for herself. Yet even as Gray finds a supportive boyfriend, acceptance at Harvard, a vocation, she feels she is held back by menacing questions that she cannot avoid: questions about sexuality, her sister, her father, herself, questions that threaten to destroy all Gray has worked so hard to create. Full of real characters, unconventional wisdom about families, and the special insights that can come from pain, Lee Walmsley's first novel is a triumph. Marked by intelligence and humor, Light Sister Dark Sister is a beautiful book that readers will be unable to forget.

I have completed this manuscript Just Remember This or as American Pop Singers 1900-1950 about music before the 1950s in America. It perhaps offers knowledge and insights not previously found in other musical reference books. I have moreover been working on this book very meticulously over the past twelve plus years. It started as a bit of fun and gradually became serious as I began to listen along with the vocalists of popular music of the era before 1950, essentially just before the dawn of rock and roll. If you can call it that, indeed, genre and labeling of American music started here and then from everywhere. While the old adage of always starting from somewhere could be noted in every century, the 1900s had produced the technology. Understanding the necessity, more so, finds a curiosity on the part of a general public hungry for entertainment despite 6-day work weeks, World War I, the Great Depression, and World War II. Sister Saint Sulpice Armando Palacio Valdés, 1890 The British poets, 1871 Brücke, 1970 The Academy and Literature, 1887 St. Nicholas, 1878 Kaapse bibliotekaris, 2001.
