Situated Ethics in Educational Research Helen Simons, Robin Usher, 2012-11-12 Ethics has traditionally been seen as a set of general principles which can be applied in a range of situations This book argues that in fact ethical principles must be shaped within different research practices and hence take on different significances according to varying research situations The book develops the notion of situated ethics and explores how ethical issues are practically handled by educational researchers in the field Contributors present theoretical models and practical examples of what situated ethics involves in conducting research on specific areas Research Methods in Educational Leadership and Management

Marianne Coleman, Ann R J Briggs, 2002-08-09 This book is the essential guide to research in educational leadership and management by bringing together expert original contributions to present a comprehensive and accessible resource for new and experienced researchers in the field Ethics in Social Research Kevin Love, 2012-08-17 Ethics in Social Research

Educational Research Practice in Southern Contexts Sharlene Swartz, Nidhi Singal, Madeleine Arnot, 2023-10-13 Bringing together a unique collection of 18 insightful and innovative internationally focused articles Educational Research Practice in Southern Contexts offers reflections case studies and critically research methods and processes which decentre reframe and reimagine conventional educational research strategies and operationalise the tenets of decolonising theory This anthology represents a valuable teaching resource It provides readers with the chance to read high quality examples of research that critique current ways of doing research and to reflect on how research methods can contribute to the project of decolonising knowledge production in and about education in for example Africa South Asia Asia and Latin America It grapples with everyday dilemmas and tricky ethical questions about protection consent voice cultural sensitivity and validation by engaging with real world situations and increasing the potential for innovation and new collaborations Educational Research Practice in Southern Contexts will be essential reading for anyone teaching educational research methods and will encourage novice and experienced researchers to rethink their research approaches disentangle the local and global and challenge those research rituals codes and fieldwork practices which are often unproblematically assumed to be universally relevant The SAGE Handbook of Evaluation Ian Shaw, Jennifer C Greene, Melvin M Mark, 2006-07-10 This handbook thoroughly covers all aspects of evaluation yet isn't too technical to understand It offers everything an organization needs to know to get the most out of evaluation Nonprofit World The Handbook succeeds in capturing and presenting evaluation's extensive knowledge base within a global context In so doing it provides a useful coherent and definitive benchmark on the field's diverse and dynamic purposes practices theories approaches issues and challenges for the 21st century The Handbook is an essential reference and map for any serious evaluation practitioner scholar and student anywhere in the world Michael Quinn Patton author of Utilization Focused Evaluation Readers of this volume will find a set of texts that provide an evocative overview of contemporary thinking in the world of evaluation This is not a book of simple tips It does justice to the complex realities of evaluation practice by bringing together some of the best practitioners in the world to reflect on its current state It is theoretically sophisticated yet eminently readable anchored in evaluation as it is undertaken in a variety of domains It is the kind of book that startles a little and makes you think I highly recommend it Murray Saunders University of Lancaster In this comprehensive handbook an examination of the complexities of contemporary evaluation contributes to the ongoing dialogue that arises in professional efforts to evaluate people related programs policies and practices The SAGE Handbook of Evaluation is a unique and authoritative resource consisting of 25 chapters covering a range of evaluation theories and techniques in a single accessible volume With contributions from world leading figures in their fields overseen by an eminent international editorial board this handbook is an extensive and user friendly resource organised in four coherent sections Role and Purpose of Evaluation in Society Evaluation as a Social Practice The Practice of Evaluation Domains of Evaluation Practice The Handbook of Evaluation is written for practicing evaluators academics advanced postgraduate students and evaluation clients and offers a definitive benchmark statement on evaluation theory and practice for the first decades of the 21st century

Ebook: Ethical Dilemmas in Education: Considering Challenges and Risks in Practice Carol Brown, Mary Wild, 2022-11-07 Ethical Dilemmas in Educational Research is a valuable resource for both researchers and supervisors Having myself sat on a university ethics committee I appreciate not only the considerations needed when approving applications but also the controversy around what could be viewed as undue restrictions on research The real life and hypothetical dilemmas presented in this book should help guide researchers towards effective but ethically sensitive designs Dr Katy Smart CPsychol AFBPsS Department of Psychiatry University of Oxford UK Ethical Dilemmas in Educational Research is an invaluable guide for educational researchers around the world helping to develop best practices and make informed decisions This book demonstrates how a careful balance must be struck between the needs of participants increasing regulatory guidelines and the academic freedom of the educational researcher The authors discuss an array of issues arising in the field of educational research including ethical dilemmas in action issues of agency and privacy and researcher reflexivity With a foreword by Professor Ian Menter this book goes beyond the guidelines and focuses on the specific dilemmas that educational researchers face illustrated with real life and inclusive examples The book Focuses on the resolution of ethical dilemmas in educational research and not just the dilemmas themselves Highlights the role of committees and guidelines with an emphasis on misunderstandings and common purposes Is written by academics from differing theoretical and methodological perspectives and disciplines across the spectrum of educational research Presents specific dilemmas encountered during research in the early years schools and universities The authors use these ideas to build on the foundations of an ethical approach and find new ways of working together and learning from one another to ensure best practice in the educational research field and forge a more united forward path Carol Brown is a Senior Lecturer in Psychology and Education Faculty Research Ethics Officer at Oxford Brookes University UK Mary Wild is Professor in
