Situationist International Anthology (1982) Ken Knabb, In 1957 a few European avant garde groups came together to form the Situationist International Picking up where the dadaists and surrealists had left off the situationists challenged people's passive conditioning with carefully calculated scandals and the playful tactic of détournement Seeking a more extreme social revolution than was dreamed of by most leftists they developed an incisive critique of the global spectacle commodity system and of its Communist pseudo opposition and their new methods of agitation helped trigger the May 1968 revolt in France Since then although the SI itself was dissolved in 1972 situationist theories and tactics have continued to inspire radical currents all over the world The Situationist International anthology generally recognized as the most comprehensive and accurately translated collection of situationist writings in English presents a rich variety of articles leaflets graffiti and internal documents ranging from early experiments in psychogeography to lucid analyses of the Watts riot the Vietnam War the Prague Spring the Chinese Cultural Revolution and other crises and upheavals of the sixties For this new edition the translations have all been fine tuned and over 100 pages of new material have been added Publisher's description Situationist International Anthology (1982) Ken (ed) Knabb, Situationist International Anthology, Edited and Translated by Ken Knabb ,1981 Promotional poster for the Situationist international anthology published in 1981 Guy Debord, the Situationist International, and the Revolutionary Spirit James Trier,2019-07-15 Winner of the 2020 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award Guy Debord the Situationist International and the Revolutionary Spirit presents a history of the two avant garde groups that French filmmaker and subversive strategist Guy Debord founded and led the Lettrist International 1952 1957 and the Situationist International 1957 1972 Debord is popularly known for his classic book The Society of the Spectacle 1967 but his masterwork is the Situationist International SI which he fashioned into an international revolutionary avant garde group that orchestrated student protests at the University of Strasbourg in 1966 contributed to student unrest at the University of Nanterre in 1967 1968 and played an important role in the occupations movement that brought French society to a standstill in May of 1968 The book begins with a brief history of the Lettrist International that explores the group's conceptualization and practice of the critical anti art practice of d tourment as well as the subversive spatial practices of the d rive psychogeography and unitary urbanism These practices which became central to the Situationist International anticipated many contemporary cultural practices including culture jamming critical media literacy and critical public pedagogy This book follows up the edited book D tourment as Pedagogical Praxis Sense Publishers 2014 and together they offer readers particularly those in the field of Education an introduction to the history concepts and critical practices of a group whose revolutionary spirit permeates contemporary culture as can be seen in the political actions of Pussy Riot in Russia the yellow vest protesters in France the BlackLivesMatter movement and the striking teachers and student protesters on campuses throughout the U S See inside the book

Rethinking the Spectacle Devin Penner,2019-06-15 Spectacle is usually considered a superficial form of politics which tries to distract and deceive a passive audience It is difficult to see how this type of politics could be reconciled with the democratic requirement of active and informed agency Rethinking the Spectacle re examines the tension between spectacle and political agency in our hyper mediated digital society Devin Penner uses the theories and practices of Guy Debord and the Situationist International as a point of departure offering both a critical review of Situationist ideas and a way to develop their radical democratic potential in the current political climate Emphasizing the importance of thinking about the connection between spectacle and broader democratic processes Rethinking the Spectacle also looks at various models of social and political organization and includes an in depth assessment of the 2011 Occupy movement Ultimately Rethinking the Spectacle concludes that properly conceived spectacle can in fact mobilize the public for egalitarian purposes

Quotational Practices Patrick Greaney,2014-03-01 Literature and art have always depended on imitation and in the past few decades quotation and appropriation have become dominant aesthetic practices But critical methods have not kept pace with this development Patrick Greaney reopens the debate about quotation and appropriation shifting away from naive claims about the death of the author In interpretations of art and literature from the 1960s to the present Quotational Practices shows how artists and writers use quotation not to undermine authorship and originality but to answer questions at the heart of twentieth century philosophies of history Greaney argues that quotation is a technique employed by art and philosophy to build ties to the past and to possible futures By exploring quotation's links to gender identity and history he offers new approaches to works by some of the most influential modern and contemporary artists writers and philosophers including Walter Benjamin Guy Debord Michel Foucault Marcel Broodthaers Glenn Ligon Sharon Hayes and Vanessa Place Ultimately Quotational Practices reveals innovative perspectives on canonical philosophical texts as well as art and literature in a wide range of genres and mediums from concrete poetry and the artist's book to performance painting and video art

Thinking Radical Democracy Martin Breugh, Christopher Holman, Rachel Magnusson, Paul

Mazzocchi, Devin Penner, 2015-01-01 Thinking Radical Democracy is an introduction to nine key political thinkers who contributed to the emergence of radical democratic thought in post war French political theory Hannah Arendt Maurice

Merleau Ponty Pierre Clastres Claude Lefort Cornelius Castoriadis Guy Debord Jacques Rancière, Etienne Balibar and Miguel

Abensour The essays in this collection connect these writers through their shared contribution to the idea that division and difference in politics can be perceived as productive creative and fundamentally democratic The questions they raise regarding equality and emancipation in a democratic society will be of interest to those studying social and political thought or democratic activist movements like the Occupy movements and Idle No More Aesthetic Revolutions and Twentieth-Century Avant-Garde Movements Aleš Erjavec, 2015-05-08 This collection examines key aesthetic avant garde art movements of the twentieth century and their relationships with revolutionary politics The contributors distinguish aesthetic avant gardes whose artists aim to transform society and the ways of sensing the world through political means from the artistic avant gardes which focus on transforming representation Following the work of philosophers such as Friedrich

Schiller and Jacques Rancière the contributors argue that the aesthetic is inherently political and that aesthetic avant garde art is essential for political revolution In addition to analyzing Russian constructivism surrealism and Situationist International the contributors examine Italian futurism's model of integrating art with politics and life the murals of revolutionary Mexico and Nicaragua 1960s American art and the Slovenian art collective NSK's construction of a fictional political state in the 1990s Aesthetic Revolutions and Twentieth Century Avant Garde Movements traces the common foundations and goals shared by these disparate arts communities and shows how their art worked towards effecting political and social change Contributors John E Bowlt Sascha Bru David Craven Aleš Erjavec Tyrus Miller Raymond Spiteri, Miško

Guy Debord and the Situationist International Tom McDonough, 2004-02-27 Critical texts, translations documents and photographs on the work of the Situationist International This volume is a revised and expanded version of a special issue of the journal October Winter 1997 that was devoted to the work of the Situationist International SI The first section of the issue contained previously unpublished critical texts and the second section contained translations of primary texts that had previously been unavailable in English The emphasis was on the SI's profound engagement with the art and cultural politics of their time 1957-1972 with a strong argument for their primarily political and activist stance by two former members of the group T J Clark and Donald Nicholson Smith Guy Debord and the Situationist International supplements both sections It reprints important hard to find essays by Giorgio Agamben, Libero Andreotti, Jonathan Crary, Thomas Y Levin, Greil

Marcus and Tom McDonough and doubles the number of translations of primary texts which now encompass a broader and more representative range of the SI's writings on culture and language In a field still dominated by hagiography the critical texts were selected for their willingness to confront critically the history and legacy of the SI They examine the group within the broader framework of the historical and neo avant gardes and beyond that the postwar world in general The translations trace the SI s reflections on the legacy of the avant garde in art and architecture particularly on the linguistic and spatial significance of montage aesthetics Many of the translated works are by Guy Debord 1932 1994 the impresario of the SI especially known for his book The Society of the Spectacle 1968 in Europe Martin Klimke, Joachim Scharloth, 2008-03-15 A concise history of protest activism during the 1960s 1970s this volume marks the 40th anniversary of the seminal year of 1968 Utopian Studies, 1995 The Situationist International Alastair Hemmens, Gabriel Zacarias, 2020-04-20 From its foundation in 1957 to its self dissolution in 1972 the Situationist International established itself as one of the most radical revolutionary organisations of the twentieth century This book brings together leading researchers on the SI to provide a comprehensive critical analysis of the group s key concepts and contexts from its relationship to earlier artistic avant gardes romanticism Hegelianism the history of the workers movement and May 68 to the concepts and practices of spectacle constructed situations everyday life and d tourment The volume also considers historically underexamined areas of the SI including the situation of women in the group and its opposition to colonialism and racism With contributions from a broad range of thinkers including Anselm Jappe and Michael Ley this account takes a fresh look at the complex workings of a group that has come to define radical politics and culture in the post war period Radical Philosophy, 1990

Literature and Oppositional Culture in Late Capitalism Johanna L. Isaacson, 2011 Architecture and Feminism Elizabeth Danze, Carol Henderson, 1996 How are the seemingly disparate disciplines of architecture and feminism related This volume addresses this question through diverse essays and projects articles range from a definition of new possibilities for a feminist architecture to an analysis of the Playboy bachelor pad Environment & Planning, 1996 Reading the Illegible Craig Douglas Dworkin, 2003 A poet takes another s text excises this prints over that cancels erases rearranges defaces and generally renders the original unreadable at least in its original terms What twentieth century writers and artists have meant by such appropriations and violations and how the illegible results are to be read is the subject Craig Dworkin takes up in this ambitious work Reading the Illegible explores such formal and structural manipulations in a wide range of exemplary cases John Cage s and Jackson MacLow s practices of writing through other texts the intentional cancellations of text by book artist Ken Campbell and conceptual artist Marcel Broodthaers Susan Howe s experiments in typography and cultural transmission visual complexity in Charles Bernstein Stan Brakhage and Rosemarie Waldrop the sedimentary texts of post minimalist artist Robert Smithson and poets Steve McCaffery and Christopher Dewdney the tactics of erasure employed by the poet Ronald Johnson and book artist Tom Phillips In his scrutiny of these works and with reference to a rich variety of contextual materials from popular and scientific texts to visual artworks political and cultural theories and experimental films Dworkin proposes a new way of apprehending the radical formalism of such unreadable texts His method seeks to unveil what Dworkin describes as the politics of the poem what is signified by its form enacted by its structures implicit in the philosophy of language how it positions its reader and other questions relating to the poem as material object In doing so he exposes the mechanics and function of truly radical formalism as a practice that moves beyond aesthetic considerations into the realm of politics and ideology Thus this book asks us to reconsider poetry as a physical act and helps us to see how the range of a text's linguistic and political maneuvers depends to a great extent on the material conditions of reading and writing as well as on the mechanics of reproduction     Public Secrets Ken Knabb,1997 The greatest hits and a fine read for anyone interested in situationist ideas anarchism the 60s counterculture and beyond Includes both two substantial new texts The Joy Of Revolution and Autobiography and reprints of all his old pamphlets co authored work and translations of various situationist texts A veritable treasure trove of pamphlets texts posters comics articles leaflets and essays Over 400 pages and every one is a winner
