Six Short Stories:

Six Short Stories Edited By S.E. Paces, Great Stories in Easy English Six Short Stories E. F. Doff, 1958

Selected Short Stories Anthony Trollope, 2017-01-18 Popular and prolific Anthony Trollope wrote 47 novels as well as dozens of short stories that provide fascinating insights into Victorian life behavior and morals A careful observer of people and places Trollope created realistic unsentimental depictions of everyday life that offer enduring entertainment as well as vivid reflections of the attitudes of his era These six stories originally appeared in periodicals and Trollope may have drawn upon his experiences as an editor in writing Mary Gresley concerning a young woman with literary ambitions and The Spotted Dog chronicling a harried scholar's attempts to work in peace Christmas stories include The Mistletoe Bough a tale of a broken engagement and Not If I Know It relating a family falling out Courtship and class distinctions receive wry treatments in The Parson's Daughter of Oxney Colne in which a well-to-do suitor receives his comeuppance and The Two Heroines of Plumplington a tale of romance stymied by parental snobbery Six Children's Stories Book 5 Edwin Barrie, 2025-05-05 six delightful stories for children Large print for easy reading Good for parents and Grandparents to engage with children to help with reading The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well-known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany Selected Short Stories (Dual-Language) Honoré de Balzac, 2014-05-05 DIV6 short story masterpieces by great French novelist include An Episode During the Terror A Passion in the Desert The Revolutionary Conscript 3 more Excellent new English translations on facing pages div The Collected Papers of Sherlock Holmes - Volume 6 David Marcum, 2023-05-09 At the age of ten in the mid 1970s David Marcum discovered Mr Sherlock Holmes and from that point he knew that the original 60 Canonical adventures would never be enough This coupled with his life-long desire to write meant that eventually he would find a way to add new stories to The Great Holmes Tapestry Since then in addition to editing over 80 volumes most of which are Sherlockian anthologies David has written and published over 100 Sherlockian adventures in a variety of his own books as well as anthologies and magazines Now these are being collected along with a few others that haven't been seen before These first five volumes of The Collected Papers of Sherlock Holmes contained 77 of David's Holmesian stories and now we present Volume VI Muniments with 21 more Join us as we return to Baker Street and discover more authentic adventures of Sherlock Holmes the man described by the estimable Dr Watson as the best and wisest whom I have ever known

British Authors and Texts C. L. Khatri, 2005 The Nineteenth-Century French Short Story Allan Pasco, 2019-07-03 The 19th Century French Short Story by eminent scholar Allan H Pasco seeks to offer a more comprehensive view of the definition capabilities and aims of short stories The book examines general instances of the genre specifically in 19th century France by recognizing their cultural context demonstrating how close analysis of texts effectively communicates their artistry and arguing for a distinction between middling and great short stories Where previous studies have examined the writers of short stories individually The 19th Century French Short Story takes a broader lens to the subject and looks at short story writers as they grapple with the artistic ethical and social concerns of their day Making use of French short story masterpieces with reinforcing comparisons to works from other traditions this book offers the possibility of a more adequate appreciation of the under valued short story genre

The Short Story after Apartheid Graham K. Riach, 2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid's end By focusing on the short story this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature the aesthetics of engaged writing the politics of the past class and race the legacies of violence and the struggle over the land Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavi Zo Wicomb Phaswane Mpe and Henrietta Rose Innes this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought
