Design Elizabeth Wilhide, 2016-10-25 This book takes a close look at the key developments, movements and practitioners of design around the world from the beginnings of industrial manufacturing to the present day. Organized chronologically, it locates design within its technological, cultural, economic, aesthetic and theoretical contexts. From the high-minded moralists of the 19th century to the radical thinkers of modernism, the book provides in-depth coverage of a subject that touches all our lives. Iconic works that mark significant steps forward or that characterize a particular era or approach, such as Marcel Breuer's Wassily chair of 1925, Eliot Noyes's corporate identity work for IBM in the 1950s and Matthew Carter's Verdana typeface designed to be read on screen, are analysed in detail while the text sets out the framework of ideas, intent and technology within which differing approaches to design have evolved. From the cars we drive and the products we buy to the graphics that surround us, we are all consumers of design.

Fear and Fashion in the Cold War Jane Pavitt, 2008-09 This book explores Cold War fashion in all its aspects, ranging from innovations in materials to the cybernetic visions of the 1960s, from the bikini to the spacesuit, vinyl, radiation suits to high-tech jewellery. Paco Rabanne to Barbarella. Set in the context of art, film, science and design, Pavitt explores how the image of the body was shaped by Cold War concerns, atomic anxieties, the space race, technological developments and the first forays into hyper-reality. With a stunning selection of images alongside military, political and scientific research, the book shows how counter-cultural theories and experiences in the later 1960s shaped an alternative view of the Cold War Body.

BOOK JACKET "We are the Mods" Christine Jacqueline Feldman, 2009 Drawing on archival research, oral history, interviews and participant observation, this examination of the adoption and adaptation of Mod style across geographic space also maps its various interpretations over time, from the early 1960s to the present. The book traces the Mod youth culture from its genesis in the dimly lit clubs of London's Soho, where it began as a way for young people to reconfigure modernity after the chaos of World War II, to its contemporary, country-specific expressions. By examining Mod culture in the United States, Germany and Japan alongside the United Kingdom, We Are the Mods contrasts the postwar development of Mod in those countries that lost the war with those that won. The book illuminates the culture's fashion, music, iconography and gender aesthetics to create a compelling portrait of a transnational subculture.

The New Boutique Neil R. Bingham, 2005 A presentation of the most courageous and sometimes outrageous collaborations between some of the world's most critically acclaimed architects and designers and the leading fashion houses of our time.

Foale and Tuffin Iain Webb, 2009-10-15 Marion Foale and Sally Tuffin were two bolshy girls who just did it. After meeting at Walthamstow Art School in 1955 and then studying together at the Royal College of Art, they embarked on a trailblazing career in fashion, lasting throughout the 1960s until their partnership came to an end in 1972. Quirky, youthful creativity, acute sensitivity to the latest moods and trends, expert craftsmanship and a little Swinging Sixties good fortune placed them at the hub of the cultural explosion in London that defined the era. Their boutique off Carnaby

Street was at the epicenter of the new fashion scene Suddenly David Bailey was photographing their outfits for Vogue Cathy MacGowan was wearing them on Ready Steady Go and they were jetting around America as part of the ground breaking Youthquake tour Through detailed interviews with Foale and Tuffin themselves exclusive access to their personal archives and contributions from an extraordinary array of figures from the fashion art and cultural scenes of the 1960s 70s and beyond Iain R Webb builds a fascinating picture of the time throwing new light on how fashion and business underwent a period of unprecedented change It was a period of cross pollination in art music and fashion of entrepreneurial and cultural innovation Contributors include Manolo Blahnik Sir Terence Conran Felicity Green Barbara Hulanicki Catherine Milinaire Janet Street Porter Mary Quant and Jean Shrimpton The narrative of the Foale and Tuffin story perfectly traces the decade from its groovy optimistic beginnings when the two embryonic fashion designers blithely set up shop in 1961 to its crash and burn finale as Sixties sanguinity melted away into a hangover of Seventies cynicism masked as it was with the distraction of fancy dress escapism From Atoms to Patterns Lesley Jackson, 2008 From Atoms to Patterns tells the intriguing story of the Festival Pattern Group a unique collaboration between scientists and designers at the Festival of Britain
