

SINS & SECRETS

A dramatic, low-key lighting photograph. On the right, a man in a dark suit and light-colored shirt is shown in profile, looking down. His face is partially in shadow, with a bright light highlighting the side of his head and ear. On the left, another man is lying on the floor, also in profile, facing the same direction. He is wearing a light-colored shirt and dark trousers. The background is dark and indistinct, suggesting an indoor setting like a bar or a club. The overall mood is mysterious and intense.

The Hidden Life Adolph Saphir, 1877 Adolph Saphir's classic meditation on chapter four verse eight of the Book of James is treasured for its poignant spiritual assessment of the New Testament Draw near to God and he will draw near to you is the message at the heart of The Hidden Life For the author these words summarize most perfectly the exactness of God's message through the New Testament With this as his basis Adolph Saphir proceeds to discuss how to live with the Holy Trinity in mind Yet his contemplations are rich in their variety he visits such topics as Eastern mysticism found in religions of India and Islam the discussions between God and Biblical figures such as Nicodemus and the message brought by Christ to humankind The meditations herein are supported by references to chapters of the New Testament together with a variety of quotations from spiritual authors of antiquity and early modern times Though his inquiry is winding with touches of eclecticism Saphir never loses sight of the objective growing closer to the spiritual essence of the Lord and Jesus Christ The Saphir family converted from Judaism to Christianity when Adolph was a child Intellectually apt Adolph gained a Master's degree from Glasgow University and went on to serve as a minister and missionary of some renown in the 19th century Glasgow University made him an honorary Doctor of Divinity in 1878

A Deadly Shade of Night Jayne Fresina, 2021-03-05 How do you take your tea The Beast of Whitherward Fell has been blamed for a great many mysterious events and gruesome murders on that wildest perilous stretch of the Yorkshire Moors But what or who is the real monster And can there be only one that has stalked this place since the beginning of time Detective Inspector Ptolemy Deverell does not believe in mythical beasts or supernatural phenomena He's a quiet unassuming pragmatic fellow who seldom falls prey to emotion Nobody pulls the fleece over his eyes So if anybody can shed light on the rampaging fiend behind the bloody history of this place surely he can But when the detective embarks upon three cases at once he has no idea how tightly they are entwined or that this tangle will lead him into the darkest part of Whitherward Fell To face the Beast head on With a lady in search of vengeance a gentleman on a mission for truth and a little girl waiting for justice the detective already has his hands full On top of everything he the most unromantic fellow in the world is in love Will he ever get around to proposing marriage to the very modern bicycle riding baker extraordinaire Miss Lucy Greenwood And if he does will she laugh in his face and try drowning him in raspberry jam Not only that A ghost from his own past has returned to haunt his nightmares and he cannot get on with his life until she s finally at rest Tolly Deverell might not believe in the Beast of Whitherward Fell but he is preyed upon by a scavenging creature that lurks in the bleakest shadows of a dream waiting to tear him apart The great shadow of its wingspan falls from above when he is most susceptible It comes to him when he s alone in the dark It comes to him when all but his mind is quiet It comes in the deadliest shades of night And with words clawed into the wall it asks How do you take your tea [The hidden life, extr. tr. from Pensées chrétiennes \[by M.J.B.\]](#) François Nepveu,1871 Autobiography of a Werewolf
